R. THOMAS GAGLARDI

OWNER AND GOVERNOR

R. Thomas (Tom) Gaglardi is the owner and governor of the Dallas Stars Hockey Club and the president of Northland Properties Corporation, the largest family-owned hospitality company in Canada with its head offices located in Vancouver, B.C. He was officially introduced as the sixth owner in franchise history on November 21, 2011.

Since acquiring the club, Gaglardi has revitalized hockey in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, overhauling the team's front office by hiring veteran administrator Jim Lites to serve as president and installing one of the most respected hockey minds in Jim Nill as general manager. He also spearheaded the overhaul of the team's logo and uniform, forging a new identity for the club to fit his vision. Under his watch, industry insiders have consistently identified the Stars as a team "on the rise" for both the business and hockey operations side of the organization. During the 2014-15 season, Gaglardi purchased the Texas Stars of the American Hockey League (AHL) and acquired the operating rights to H-E-B Center at Cedar Park in Cedar Park, Texas. The move reinforced his commitment to sustaining and growing the sport of hockey in the state of Texas and creating a seamless organizational process to develop and train NHL-caliber players, coaches and front office staff.

A passionate and knowledgeable leader who is deeply involved in all aspects of the family's business, Gaglardi began his career in the hospitality industry at age 13 as a busboy and has worked in virtually every area of his business since that time. He spent considerable time in construction, hotel and restaurant operations, real estate development and finance. At age 23, he was promoted to president of the Sandman Hotel Group, and at 26 he became president of Northland Properties Corporation, the Gaglardi family's umbrella company.

Under his direction, Northland has grown to be the largest family-owned hospitality company in Canada including a large portfolio of hotels with the Sandman Hotel Group and the Sutton Place Hotels & Resorts, several restaurant chains including Denny's Restaurants of Canada, Moxie's Grill & Bar, Chop Steakhouse & Bar and Shark Club Bar & Grill. In 2009, Gaglardi began expanding his brand of hospitality to the United Kingdom and more recently began operating in the United States, with the first Moxie's Grill & Bar opening in Dallas in November of 2016, and the first Sandman Hotel opening in Plano in February of 2019. The family also owns and operates a large real estate portfolio and the world renowned Revelstoke Mountain Resort. In addition to his role with the Stars, Gaglardi is a co-owner of the Kamloops Blazers Hockey Club of the Western Hockey League and serves as its governor.

An active member of the community, Gaglardi founded the Sandman Harvest Foundation, which has raised over $1 million for disadvantaged and medically challenged children living in the Okanagan Valley of British Columbia. He also serves as trustee for the PA and JM Gaglardi Senior Citizens Society, a non-profit society providing housing for seniors in Kamloops, B. C. and serves on the board of St. George's School in Vancouver. He founded the Josh Dyck Foundation to assist Josh with his recovery from an auto accident in October 2006, which left him paralyzed and confined to a wheelchair.

Gaglardi and his wife Brittney have three sons, Charlie, Bennett and Wilson, all of whom play competitive hockey. In addition to his own participation on his hockey team, Gaglardi enjoys playing golf and spending time with his family at their cottage on the shores of Kamloops Lake near Savona, B.C.

BRAD ALBERTS

PRESIDENT/CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Brad Alberts is in his second tenure with the Dallas Stars and currently serves as President and Chief Executive Officer after rejoining the team in February, 2011.

Alberts, who was named team President on March 2, 2018 and took on the role of Chief Executive Office on July 10, 2020, oversees all aspects of the Stars business operations. Previously leading all sales and marketing, he is also in charge of all aspects of the organization's finance and administration, box office, human resources and information technology. Additionally, Alberts serves alongside Stars CEO Jim Lites on the American Airlines Center Board of Directors, assisting in the management of one of the busiest arenas in the United States. Alberts also acts as President and Alternate Governor of the Texas Stars, Dallas' top development affiliate in the American Hockey League, roles which he has served in since July 1, 2017.

Alberts' career includes nearly two decades of professional sports experience selling tickets, suites, premium seating, and sponsorships. From 1996-2009, Alberts worked for the Dallas Stars and Texas Rangers in various sales management roles in tickets, suites and corporate sponsorships. From 2006-09, Alberts served as the Executive Vice President of the Hicks Sports Marketing Group, the in-house sponsorship sales group for the Stars, Texas Rangers, and Liverpool Football Club. In 2009, Alberts took over as the Vice President of Sponsorship and Sales at Legends/CSL, overseeing a number of events at numerous venues around the country, most notably the Circuit of The Americas, a Formula One racing track in Austin, Texas.

Since rejoining the team in 2011, Alberts has played an integral role in the resurgence of the Stars in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, helping lead the organization to tremendous growth in brand visibility, attendance and sponsorship sales. Alberts and his leadership team were instrumental in the sweeping rebrand of the team, retiring the numbers of Mike Modano and Jere Lehtinen and creating tremendous sponsorship value for the team and its partners.

Alberts received his bachelor's degree from Ripon College in 1992 where he was a four-year lettermen and co-captain of the basketball team, earning an induction into the Ripon College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002. He received a master's degree in sports administration from Northern Colorado in 1995. Alberts is an avid golfer, and fitness enthusiast. He resides with his wife and their daughter, Grace, in Southlake, Texas.

JAMES R. LITES

CHAIRMAN, DALLAS STARS

Dallas Stars owner Tom Gaglardi appointed Jim Lites President and CEO of the Stars on Nov. 18, 2011. Lites is very familiar with the position having held it twice previously under prior owners Norm Green and Tom Hicks.

Shifting his role to serve as the team's Chairman and Managing Director of Northland Properties Corporation, U.S. Division in July of 2020, Lites boasts a reputation as one the finest administrators in professional sports. He continues to work with Mr. Gaglardi on the day-to-day business activities of the Stars, while overseeing the hockey operations department and continuing to chair the Dallas Stars Ownership Advisory Group. Lites also maintains his role as the organization's Alternate Governor, a role he held from 1982-2007. Over the years Lites has served on the Board's marketing, broadcasting, expansion and game committees.

Over the course of Lites' two prior stints with the Stars (1993-02; 2003-07), the team won seven division championships, two Western Conference championships, two Presidents' Trophies, and the 1999 Stanley Cup. He played an active role in the conception, design, construction and on-going business operations of American Airlines Center and Children's Health StarCenter ice facilities. Most recently, Lites played a significant role in hiring General Manager Jim Nill, purchasing the Texas Stars of the American Hockey League (AHL) and the operating lease of the H-E-B Center at Cedar Park in Cedar Park, Texas.

From 1999-02, Lites also served as president of MLB's Texas Rangers, becoming one of only four executives at the time to simultaneously manage the affairs of two major league franchises. He served three years on MLB's Executive Council and was President when the Rangers captured the 1999 American League West championship.

Prior to joining the Stars in 1993, Lites served 11 years as chief operating officer of the Detroit Red Wings, who during his stint, won three Norris Division championships and two Norris Division Playoff championships after having missed the playoffs in 10 of the 11 seasons before his hiring. During his tenure, the Red Wings were named by Financial World magazine as the most valuable franchise in the NHL in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. Lites was also instrumental in the defection of former Soviet stars Sergei Fedorov, Vyacheslav Kozlov and Vladimir Konstantinov, each of whom played important parts of the Red Wings' record-setting and Stanley Cup champion hockey clubs.

While with Detroit, Lites also served as chief operating officer of Olympia Arenas, Inc., one of the Midwest's largest facility management companies. He was also responsible for the redevelopment of Detroit's historic Fox Theatre, now the most successful entertainment venue of its type in the United States and the cornerstone of Detroit's growing northside sports, entertainment and gaming complexes.

From 2007 until being rehired by the Stars in 2011, Lites managed the New York Football Giants' Personal Seat License program at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. That program was one of the most successful of its type in history.

Born and raised in Pentwater, Mich., Lites received a bachelor of arts degree with highest honors from the University of Michigan in 1975 and graduated cum laude from Wayne State (Mich.) University Law School in 1978. He specialized in litigation and labor contract negotiations when he practiced law. Jim and his wife Kim reside in Frisco. They have four children, sons Chase, Sam, Chandler, and daughter, Brooke.

JIM NILL

GENERAL MANAGER/ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

In seven seasons as general manager of the Dallas Stars, Jim Nill has guided the team to four trips to the Stanley Cup Playoffs, including a trip to the 2020 Stanley Cup Final. Nill, who was appointed to the position on April 29, 2013 by owner and governor, Tom Gaglardi, is the 11th general manager in franchise history and the sixth since the team moved to Dallas.

Since joining the Stars, Nill has dramatically re-shaped the team's culture and roster with a series of trades and acquisitions. In the summer of 2013, he began to make his mark on the club by acquiring young superstar center, Tyler Seguin, in a blockbuster, seven-player deal with the Boston Bruins. Seeing the need for continued depth at the center position, Nill once again made headlines in the 2014 offseason by bringing in center Jason Spezza via trade with Ottawa to give the Stars one of the most dynamic one-two combinations in the NHL. In 2015, he acquired three-time Stanley Cup champion Patrick Sharp in a trade with the Chicago Blackhawks, and after leading the team to regular-season Central Division and Western Conference championships in 2015-16, Nill was named a finalist for GM of the Year, marking his first career nomination. The club's 2015-16 Central Division title was its first since the 2005-06 season, while the Stars also earned the top playoff seed in the West with a 50-23-9 record (109 points).

In a highlight season in 2019-20, Nill's Stars matched a franchise record with a seven-game winning streak and added a 4-2 win over the Nashville Predators in the 2020 Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic at Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas. Following the NHL's pause due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the team traveled to the Edmonton bubble and would record postseason series wins in the First Round (4-2 against Calgary), Second Round (4-3 against Colorado) and Western Conference Final (4-1 against Vegas) to advance to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since the 2000-01 season and the fifth time in franchise history.

Following the 2014-15 season, Nill was named general manager of Canada's National Team for the 2015 IIHF World Championship in the Czech Republic and constructed a roster that captured the gold medal at the tournament. Under his leadership, Team Canada touted a perfect 10-0 record and featured Dallas Stars players Tyler Seguin, Cody Eakin and Jason Spezza, who was named the top forward of the tournament by the IIHF directorate. Previously, Nill has won gold medals when he served as general manager for Team Canada at the 2004 IIHF World Championship and as assistant general manager at the 2003 IIHF World Championship.

Prior to joining the Stars, Nill spent a total of 19 seasons as a member of the Detroit Red Wings management team, the last 15 of those as the team's assistant general manager. His responsibilities with Detroit included directing the amateur scouting department, overseeing all selections at the NHL Draft, as well as managing the development of the organization's prospects at both the professional and amateur levels. During Nill's tenure in Detroit, the Red Wings had more wins than any other franchise in the National Hockey League, won four Stanley Cups (1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008), six Presidents' Trophies (1995, 1996, 2002, 2004, 2006 and 2008), 12 Central Division titles (1995, 1996, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011), seven regular season Western Conference titles (1995, 1996, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2007 and 2008), and never missed the playoffs. He was an integral part of Detroit's drafting of Pavel Datsyuk, Henrik Zetterberg, Niklas Kronwall, Valtteri Filppula, Jimmy Howard and Johan Franzen, amongst others.

The Hanna, Alta., native joined the Red Wings' front office in the summer of 1994 following three seasons with the Ottawa Senators. Previously, Nill enjoyed a nine-season NHL career as a right wing with the Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks, St. Louis Blues, Winnipeg Jets and Red Wings. He collected 58 goals, 87 assists and 854 penalty minutes in 524 regular-season games. Nill later went to Adirondack as a player/coach, retiring as a player after the 1990-91 season. A member of the 1979-80 Canadian National and Olympic teams, he was a fifth-round pick of the St. Louis Blues (89th overall) in the 1978 NHL Draft.

Jim and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Frisco, Texas and have three children: Jenna, Trevor and Kristin, and three grandchildren: Cael, Hazel and Lincoln.

SCOTT WHITE

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/TEXAS STARS GM

Scott White is in his fifth season as assistant general manager, having spent the previous three seasons as the team's director of hockey operations. He also serves as the General Manager for the Texas Stars, Dallas' development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL). White was the architect behind the 2015 Calder Cup-winning Texas Stars, a team that set a franchise record with 48 wins, claiming the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as the AHL's regular-season points champion, as well as the John D. Chick Trophy as the West Division champions. He also manufactured the team's second John D. Chick Trophy win in 2018 as Texas fell to the Toronto Marlies, four-games-to-three, in the Calder Cup Final. The only General Manager in the history of the Texas Stars Hockey Club, White was selected by Hockey Canada to serve as a member of the management group for Canada's National Men's Team at the 2014 Deutschland Cup and 2014 Spengler Cup.

A member of the Dallas Stars organization since 2005, White, 51, previously served as a professional scout and director of minor league operations. He headed up the hockey department for the Iowa Stars, Dallas' then-primary affiliate, for three seasons. Prior to joining the Stars organization, he served as head coach of the Columbia Inferno of the ECHL for four seasons, qualifying for a playoff berth each year. He also guided Columbia to a Kelly Cup Final appearance in 2003 and finished with a 165-87-36 record (.635) in over four seasons with the Inferno. In Columbia, he was responsible for all the club's hockey operation activities, including recruiting, scouting, trades and roster moves. White worked as an assistant coach with the Greensboro Monarchs (ECHL) for a season and a half, and was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Michigan Tech University, from 1994-99.

White played five years of professional hockey from 1989-94, including three seasons with Greensboro, where he won the 1990 ECHL Championship and earned ECHL Defenseman of the Year and First-Team All-ECHL honors for the 1991-92 season. He signed with the Ottawa Senators in 1992 and played the entire season with the club's developmental affiliate in New Haven, capturing team MVP honors after posting 54 points (10-44=54) in 80 games. The Quebec native finished his professional career with 235 points (55-180=235) in 190 regular-season games and 40 points (8-32=40) in 41 postseason games.

White and his wife, Kathy, have four children: Emily, Katie, William, Madelyn and two grandsons, Corbin and Cooper.

MARK JANKO

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Mark Janko is in his 21st season with the Dallas Stars organization, and his fifth as assistant general manager. Janko has spent the past 13 seasons in Hockey Operations after previously working in the Stars public relations department for eight years.

In his current role, Janko is primarily responsible for player and staff contract negotiations, and has played an integral role in the construction and framing of the contracts for several of the team's core players including Esa Lindell, Tyler Seguin, Ben Bishop, Alexander Radulov, John Klingberg, and Jamie Benn.

Additionally, Janko oversees all preseason and regular-season scheduling, Collective Bargaining Agreement compliance, cap and budget management, salary arbitration, strategic planning and works closely with Dallas' scouting staff, with an emphasis on the professional level. He also serves as the team's liaison for all player transactions with NHL's Central Registry.

Janko, 43, joined the Stars in 1999 after serving in the media relations department for the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim during the 1998-99 season. A 1998 graduate of the University of California at Santa Barbara with a degree in communications, Janko is a native of Mission Viejo, Calif. He and his wife, Jessica, their daughters, Reese and Hayden, and son, Carson, reside in Highland Village, Texas.

J.J. MCQUEEN

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

J.J. McQueen is in his 26th season with the Dallas Stars organization. His current job duties as player development coordinator include monitoring all Dallas Stars prospects, both at the amateur and professional levels, as well as coordinating Dallas' annual Development Camp in July. Prior to moving into his current role, McQueen spent 18 seasons as the club's Strength and Conditioning Coach.

He previously spent 10 years with the three-time Memorial Cup champion Kamloops Blazers of the Western Hockey League as a strength and conditioning coach and scout. McQueen graduated from the Canadian Forces School of Physical Education and Recreation in 1974 and spent 21 years with the Canadian Army as a Phys-Ed instructor. McQueen also served as head coach for both the soccer and wrestling teams at Canada's Royal Roads Military College.

McQueen resides in Coppell, Texas with his wife, Claudia, and their daughter, Erin.

RICH PEVERLEY

Rich Peverley is in his sixth season as player development coordinator for the Dallas Stars. In his role with the team, Peverley will monitor the development of drafted Dallas Stars prospects, with an emphasis on the amateur level, and will assist J.J. McQueen in the coordination of Dallas' summer Development Camp.

Peverley played nine seasons in the National Hockey League, spending time with Nashville, Atlanta, Boston and Dallas. He finished his career having tallied 241 points (84-157=241), including 20 game-winning goals, in 442 regular-season contests. A mem`ber of the 2011 Stanley Cup champion Boston Bruins, Peverley accumulated 21 points (9-12=21) in 59 postseason contests with two trips to the Stanley Cup Final, both with Boston. Prior to breaking into the League, Peverley went undrafted after splaying four seasons of college hockey with St. Lawrence (ECAC). Peverley skated in 138 games for the Saints, registering 117 points (44-73=117).

A native of Kingston, Ont., Peverley currently resides in his native Ontario with his wife Nathalie, and their three children Isabelle, Frederik and Elena. RICK BOWNESS

HEAD COACH

On Oct. 29, 2020, Rick Bowness was announced as the 24th head coach in franchise history and the ninth in Dallas Stars history. Bowness joined the club as an assistant coach prior to the start of the 2018-19 season and was named interim head coach on Dec. 10, 2019. Bowness proceeded to guide the team to a 20-13-5 record in 38 games behind the bench and a berth in the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Under his leadership, the Stars earned postseason series wins over Calgary (4-2), Colorado (4-3) and Vegas (4-2) to advance to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since the 2000-01 season and the fifth time in franchise history. It marked Bowness' second trip to the Stanley Cup Final as the Stars fell to the Tampa Bay Lightning, the team he made his first appearance in the Stanley Cup Final with.On Jan. 1, 2020 at the 2020 Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic, Bowness became just one of three coaches in NHL history to have held a head coaching position in five different decades. He joined Hockey Hall of Fame Honored Members Pat Quinn and Scotty Bowman as the only individuals in the League's history to accomplish this feat. Bowness coached in his 2,400 NHL contest on Jan. 9 against the Anaheim Ducks, which is believed to be the most games behind a bench by a coach in NHL history.

Bowness, 65, spent the previous five seasons with the Tampa Bay Lightning where he served as the team's associate coach. During his time in Tampa Bay, the team posted a 238-135-37 record while making four appearances in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, including three trips to the Eastern Conference Final and one trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 2015.

Over his coaching career, Bowness has served in a number of different coaching capacities at the NHL level for the Dallas Stars, Winnipeg Jets, Boston Bruins, Ottawa Senators, New York Islanders, Phoenix Coyotes, Vancouver Canucks and Tampa Bay Lightning. He also served as an NHL head coach for parts of nine seasons with Winnipeg (1988-89), Boston (1991-92), Ottawa (1992-96), the New York Islanders (1996-98, Phoenix (2003-04) and Dallas (2019-present). Bowness owns a 143-302-48-8 record over his head coaching career.

Originally selected by the Atlanta Flames in the second round (26th overall) of the 1975 NHL Draft, Bowness also played in parts of six NHL seasons for Atlanta, Detroit, St. Louis and Winnipeg. He logged 55 points (18-37=55) and 191 penalty minutes in 173 regular-season games in his NHL career. The Moncton, New Brunswick native began his coaching career as a player/coach for the Sherbrooke Jets of the American Hockey League (AHL) for the 1982-83 season. He also served as head coach and general manager of the Moncton Hawks (AHL) from 1987-89 before taking over as head coach in Winnipeg midway through the 1988-89 campaign. Bowness also acted as head coach of the Maine Mariners (AHL) for two seasons from 1989-91.

Rick and his wife, Judy, have two sons and a daughter.

DEREK LAXDAL
ASSISTANT COACH

Derek Laxdal assumed an assistant coaching positing with Dallas midway through the 2019-20 campaign, and returns for his first full season serving in the capacity this season. Laxdal initially joined the Stars organization after being named the fourth head coach in Texas Stars franchise history on July 3, 2014. In his first season behind the bench for Texas, Laxdal guided the club to its fifth playoff appearance in its then six-year history with a 40-22-13-1 record. It was also Laxdal's 12th trip to the postseason, and his 10th 40-win regular season, in his 13-year head coaching career. In 2017-18, he led Texas to the Calder Cup Final where the team fell to the Toronto Marlies in seven games.

Laxdal joined the Texas Stars after concluding a four-year stretch (2010-14) as head coach of the Western Hockey League's Edmonton Oil Kings, highlighted by winning the 2014 Memorial Cup as Canadian Hockey League champions. During his final campaign in Edmonton, Laxdal guided his team to a 50-19-3 record and the Ed Chynoweth Cup as playoff champions of the WHL – the second of his career after claiming the honor in 2012. In his four seasons coaching the Oil Kings, Laxdal led the club to three 50-win seasons and finished with an overall record of 182-82-23.

In joining the Texas Stars, Laxdal returns for a second stint with the Dallas Stars organization. He spent five seasons (2005-10) as the head coach of Dallas' ECHL affiliate, the Idaho Steelheads, and won the 2007 Kelly Cup. Laxdal guided the Steelheads to a 219-108-35 record during his tenure as head coach, winning 40-or-more games and qualifying for the postseason in each of his five years behind the bench. The Steelheads made a return trip to the Kelly Cup Final in 2010, falling to the Cincinnati Cyclones in five games.

His coaching career began in 2002 as a mid-season replacement for the Central Hockey League's (CHL) Wichita Thunder. In the following two seasons, Laxdal guided the Thunder to a semifinal appearance each year and a combined regular-season record of 75-41-8 before shifting his career to Idaho.

Laxdal was originally selected by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the eighth round (151st overall) of the 1984 NHL Draft. He spent parts of six NHL seasons with the Leafs and the New York Islanders, tallying 19 points (12-7=19) in 67 career regular-season games. His professional playing career spanned 15 seasons, and Laxdal appeared in 356 contests at the AHL level – compiling 230 points (108-122=230). He won the 1990 Calder Cup as a member of the Springfield Indians (AHL), and also claimed the 1997 B&H Cup with the Nottingham Panthers of the British Ice Hockey Superleague (BISL).

TODD NELSON
ASSISTANT COACH

Todd Nelson returns to the Stars for his third season as an assistant coach.

Nelson, 51, spent the previous three seasons with the Grand Rapids Griffins of the American Hockey League (AHL), where he served as the team's head coach from 2015-18. During his time in Grand Rapids, Nelson amassed a 133-78-17 record in regular-season play, while leading the Griffins to three consecutive trips to the Calder Cup Playoffs and the 2017 Calder Cup championship.

This marks the Prince Albert, Sask. native's third stint behind an NHL bench. Nelson assumed the role of head coach of the Edmonton Oilers midway through the 2014-15 campaign, posting a 17-22-7 record in 46 games. He also spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Atlanta Thrashers from 2008-10, during which time the Thrashers earned a 70-75-19 record. In addition to his time in the NHL, Nelson served as head coach of the AHL's Oklahoma City Barons from 2010-15. Under his tutelage, the Barons logged a 176-111-46 record and reached the playoffs in each of his five seasons with the club. He also served as an assistant coach with the Chicago Wolves from 2006-08, winning the 2008 Calder Cup. Nelson began his coaching career as a player-assistant coach with the United Hockey League's (UHL) Muskegon Fury during the 2001-02 season before returning as the team's head coach from 2003-06, helping the Fury to back-to-back UHL championships in 2004 and 2005.

Originally selected by the Pittsburgh Penguins in the fourth round (79th overall) of the 1989 NHL Draft, Nelson recorded one goal (1-0=1) in three career NHL regular-season games with Pittsburgh and Washington, while also skating in four Stanley Cup Playoff contests with Washington.

JOHN STEVENS
ASSISTANT COACH

John Stevens returns to the Stars for his second season as assistant coach in 2020-21.

Stevens, 54, comes to the Stars after spending the previous nine seasons as part of the Los Angeles Kings coaching staff, the final two of which were spent as Head Coach. He earned a 51-39-9 record in 99 games as Head Coach with the club, including a four-game stint as interim Head Coach during the 2011-12 season. He joined the Kings organization in 2010-11, where he served four seasons as Assistant Coach (2010-14) and three seasons as Associate Coach (2014-17) prior to fully taking over the head job. As a part of the staff, he helped the Kings to Stanley Cup championships in both 2012 and 2014.

Before his time with the Kings, Stevens held several roles with the Philadelphia Flyers organization. He served as Head Coach for the Flyers from Oct. 22, 2006 through Dec. 4, 2009, earning a 120-109-34 record while leading his team to the playoffs in two of his four full seasons behind the bench, including the 2008 Eastern Conference Final. Prior to his time as Head Coach, Stevens served as an assistant coach for part of the 2006-07 campaign before being elevated to bench boss. Previous to joining the NHL club, Stevens was the Head Coach of the Philadelphia Phantoms (the Flyers' American Hockey League [AHL] affiliate) for six seasons (2000-01 through 2005-06). His Phantoms made the playoffs four times and won the Calder Cup Championship in 2005. In 2012, he was inducted into the AHL Hall of Fame. Overall, he has a 171-148-43 record as an NHL head coach during the regular season, as well as a record of 11-16 in the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

The native of Campbellton, New Brunswick was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the third round (47th overall) of the 1984 NHL Draft and played parts of five seasons with Philadelphia and Hartford, totaling 10 points (0-10=10) and 48 penalty minutes in 53 NHL regular season games. In 834 career AHL games Stevens, a defenseman, had 188 points (21-167=188), 1,397 penalty minutes and won three Calder Cups: 1988 with Hershey, 1991 with Springfield (team captain) and 1998 with the Phantoms (team captain).

He and his wife Stacy have two sons, John and Nolan.

JEFF REESE
GOALTENDING COACH

Jeff Reese enters his fifth season as the Stars goaltending coach in 2020-21.

He joined the Stars in June, 2015 after spending the previous six seasons in the same role with the Philadelphia Flyers. Prior to the Flyers, he spent 10 seasons with the Tampa Bay Lightning coaching staff, where he was responsible for working with all goaltenders in the Lightning organization, as well as assisting in the assessment of amateur goaltenders for the NHL Entry Draft. His time with the Lightning included their 2004 Stanley Cup championship.

Over parts of 11 seasons in the NHL with the Toronto Maple Leafs (1987-92, 1998-99), Calgary Flames (1991-94), Hartford Whalers (1993-96), Tampa Bay (1995-96) and New Jersey Devils (1996-97), Reese posted a 53-65-17 record with a 3.66 goals against average and five shutouts in 174 career regular-season contests. In 11 appearances in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, Reese posted a 3-5 mark with a 4.08 GAA.

Reese holds NHL records for most assists and most points by a goaltender in a single game, set when he had three assists for the Calgary Flames in a game against the San Jose Sharks on Feb. 10, 1993. He was selected by Toronto in the fourth round (67th overall) of the 1984 NHL Entry Draft.

KELLY FORBES
VIDEO COACH

During the 2009-10 season, Jellis was the head athletic trainer for the Texas Stars in their inaugural season in the AHL. He spent the previous two years working with Dallas' ECHL Affiliate, the Idaho Steelheads, as the head of the training department. From 2005-07, Jellis also worked as the head athletic trainer for the ECHL's Fresno Falcons.

The Creston, B.C. native obtained his master's degree in sports science in 2004. Prior to attending Bemidji State, Jellis graduated from the University of North Dakota in 2002 with a degree in athletic training. Jellis resides in Frisco, Texas with his wife, Robin, and son, Hudson.

NICK ANDREAS

PHYSICAL THERAPIST/ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

Nick Andreas enters his second season as Physical Therapist and Assistant Strength Coach with the Dallas Stars. He previously provided Physical Therapy services to the team as consultant beginning in 2015 before officially joining the organization in 2019.

Andreas completed his DPT from Mayo School of Health Sciences in 2015, after which he started his Sports Residency at UT Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas and served as the PT for the Stars and Irving Nimitz School. He has been involved as a researcher in Hip FAI Physical Therapy Management and Outcomes. Additionally, he has provided medical coverage and PT services for WOGA Gymnastics, Rock and Roll Running Series, and the University of Texas at Dallas.

A Board-Certified Sports Physical Therapist, Andreas is also a Residency Faculty member and mentor for the UT Southwestern Sports Residency and is active in the American Academy of Sports Physical Therapy, helping students and young professionals navigate the Sports PT landscape.

AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

One of the finest multi-purpose venues in the world, American Airlines Center has served as the home of the Dallas Stars since 2001, playing host to over half-a-million hockey spectators annually and over 2 million spectators total annually.

Designed by world-renowned architect, David M. Schwarz and Dallas-based HKS Inc., American Airlines Center encompasses over 800,000 square feet and includes 105 luxury suites, 36 Service King Lounge theatre-box suites, 25 Cyrus One Club loge boxes, 17 Loft seating boxes, two fifty-person Ford Party boxes and room for 18,532 hockey fans. Its brick and glass façade, sweeping vistas of downtown Dallas, double-vaulted ceilings and welcoming signature arches give the Center a unique combination of a modern, yet classically-elegant design that is perfectly suited for Dallas' "larger-than-life" Texas spirit.

No stranger to hosting major sporting events, the American Airlines Center, in conjunction with the Dallas Stars and National Hockey League, hosted the 2018 NHL Draft from June 22-23, 2018. The venue has also hosted the 2017 NCAA Women's Final Four, 2002 & 2006 NCAA first and second Round Men's Basketball Tournaments, The Phillips 66 2003, 2004, & 2006 Men's Big 12 Basketball Tournaments, 2009 U.S.A. Gymnastics Visa Championships and other events such as Boxing and Ultimate Fighting Championships. It was also a proud host of the 2007 NHL All-Star Game, 2006 and 2011 NBA Finals and hosted events during the 2010 NBA All-Star Weekend.

Not solely a sports mecca, Pollstar and Billboard consistently rank American Airlines Center among the top-10 arenas of its kind in the world for concerts. It has hosted major concerts and events, such as Coldplay, Garth Brooks, U2, The Rolling Stones, Billy Joel, Elton John, Taylor Swift, George Strait, Tom Petty, Imagine Dragons, Madonna, Justin Timberlake, and Bruce Springsteen, among others.

American Airlines Center was designed to keep ice in perfect condition, even when the Texas heat blazes outside. To maintain a constant temperature of 64-68 degrees, the building has a separate chiller system just for the slab, eight miles of one-inch pipe and 300 tons of refrigeration. In addition, a 4,200-ton air-conditioning system and a dehumidification system extract 500 gallons of moisture per hour during the season. The ice is put into place each September and takes 24 hours to build up to the 1-inch depth the players are accustomed to. The ice stays in the Center until the playoffs are complete and is covered up during the season with a special material called Polar Floor, a fiberglass product that keeps the ice cold and allows the air temperature above to rise without affecting the ice. The Zamboni is retrofitted with a Fast Ice system, the latest technology that allows the ice maintenance crew to cut the ice quickly in order to keep the ice smooth and fast.

In its 17th year, American Airlines Center still pushes the envelope with technology. In 2009, the Center set the standard for hockey and basketball arenas by installing the first 1080 high-definition center scoreboard in the NHL and NBA, increasing digital video throughout the arena bowl by 300 percent. Matching the spectacular HD video experience is a state-of-the-art concert quality sound system. The digital line array audio system delivers audio effects that the American Airlines Center visitor can both feel and hear. Using a patented retractable seating system, the Center can convert from an ice rink to a basketball court or concert setting in less than two hours.

H-E-B CENTER AT CEDAR PARK

Northland Properties Corporation, the parent holding company of the Dallas Stars, purchased the Texas Stars, Dallas' development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL), in December, 2014, announcing that the transfer of ownership from Hicks Cedar Park, LLC had been successful and was approved by the AHL Board of Governors. Texas Stars, L.P. now operates the city-owned H-E-B Center at Cedar Park, located in Cedar Park, Texas, under a long-term lease running through 2034.

"H-E-B Center at Cedar Park, and the land surrounding it, is located in one of the fastest growing regions of the United States," Northland President and Dallas Stars Owner Tom Gaglardi said. "The opportunity to grow the area's footprint as the top-flight entertainment region in Central Texas is immense, and we are looking forward to engaging with the city of Cedar Park to make that happen."

H-E-B Center at Cedar Park holds 6,863 seats for hockey, 7,200 for basketball and up to 8,700 for concerts and other events. The state-of-the-art arena has 24 suites (including four party suites) and 545 club seats with a private club lounge. The building hosts more than 130 events per year including sporting events, concerts, and family shows. H-E-B Center at Cedar Park is home to the 2014 AHL Calder Cup champion Texas Stars. The building also serves as the home court to the Austin Spurs, the G League affiliate of the 2014 NBA champion San Antonio Spurs. Since opening in September of 2009, H-E-B Center at Cedar Park has hosted world-class performers and events such as George Strait, Rascal Flatts, Alan Jackson, Tool, Jason Aldean, Def Leppard, Eric Church, Cirque du Soleil and Disney On Ice.

"Since coming to Cedar Park, the Texas Stars have been a wonderful partner of ours in bringing world-class sports and entertainment to the area," said former Cedar Park Mayor Matt Powell. "We look forward to working closely with Northland Properties and the Dallas Stars in this outstanding partnership as we continue to fulfill the vision of H-E-B Center at Cedar Park and the city."

In its first nine seasons of existence, all of which have been as the affiliate of the Dallas Stars, the Texas Stars have proved to be one of the most successful franchises in the AHL. The team captured its first Calder Cup championship in 2014. The club has made three trips to the Calder Cup Final (2010, 2014, 2018), qualifying for the postseason in seven of its nine seasons (2010, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2018), and has posted 40-win campaigns four times. Many of the Dallas Stars' young core of NHL players have spent time skating for the Texas Stars including captain Jamie Benn, defensemen John Klingberg and Esa Lindell, and forwards Radek Faksa and Devin Shore.

"Since Northland Properties purchased the Texas Stars, we've been thrilled with the tremendous opportunities H-E-B Center at Cedar Park has provided for our organization," said Texas Stars President Brad Alberts. "Owning and operating our own AHL affiliate and the venue in which it plays has been immensely beneficial in creating a seamless process to develop not only the future stars of the NHL, but our coaching and front office staffs, as well. The state-of-the-art facility provides an incredible experience for fans and teams alike, and has been the driving force in bringing top-name performers to the heart of Texas."

COMERICA CENTER

The Comerica Center complex, which includes the practice facility of the Dallas Stars, the executive offices for the team's business and hockey operations, and a recently renovated 6,000 seat arena, is located in Frisco, Texas, one of the fastest growing cities in the United States.

In January of 2019, the Dallas Stars and Comerica Bank announced an expanded multi-year partnership making the financial services company the naming rights partner for Comerica Center.

"We are excited to take our longtime partnership with the Dallas Stars Hockey Club to the next level as the naming rights partner for Comerica Center." James H. Weber, Comerica Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer, said. "This enhanced sponsorship will allow Comerica to expand its presence and significantly increase our exposure within our headquarters market, while continuing to strengthen brand awareness and affinity and raising expectations of what a bank can be with the Stars, NHL fans and in the North Texas communities we serve."

Originally constructed in 2003, Comerica Center was initially built in partnership with the Dallas Stars, City of Frisco and Frisco ISD. The arena portion of the complex, formerly Dr Pepper Arena, is a multi-purpose sports and entertainment venue that is home to the Texas Legends, the NBA G League affiliate of the Dallas Mavericks. The 6,000-seat venue features amenities such as a state-of-the-art sound system, multiple HD video screens, 12 suites and a private lounge area.

Comerica Center also hosts concerts, family shows, corporate conferences and other sporting events. Recently, the facility has hosted Cirque De Soleil, the Harlem Globetrotters, the Men's and Women's Lone Star Conference Basketball Championship, Frisco ISD graduations and numerous other events and conferences.

In its commitment to remain at the forefront of the entertainment industry, the arena underwent major upgrades in the summer of 2018 to artist spaces and backstage dressing rooms, as well as updated signage and concessions stands and storefronts for an enhanced audience experience. In addition to the upgrades, the arena introduced Ryan Sanders Sports Services (RS3) as its new concessionaire. Through RS3's vision, Comerica Center will feature state-of-the-art food and beverage services specifically tailored to highlight the unique atmospheres of each event.

"We couldn't be more proud to partner with Comerica Bank, a North Texas-based company who has supported the Stars for many years," Dallas Stars President Brad Alberts said. "The renovations made to our Frisco campus have ushered in a new era for the Stars and have reinforced our commitment to partnering with local businesses, and we are thrilled to be able to share this exciting new chapter with Comerica Bank."

CHILDREN'S HEALTH STARCENTERS

When the Stars moved from Minnesota to Texas, the Club made exposing the Dallas/Fort Worth community to hockey an organizational priority. By constructing and operating several StarCenters throughout the Metroplex, the team has been able to have direct involvement with developing and growing the game of hockey in the greater Southwest region.

The Dallas Stars are one of the few teams in the NHL to design and build their own practice facility and arena, run in partnership with the City of Frisco. The team also sets the pace in the NHL among clubs that form partnerships with communities to create public skating facilities, a trend which is picking up momentum around the League. The facilities in Euless, Farmers Branch, Frisco and McKinney, as well as the recently-opened StarCenter in Mansfield, were all built in partnership with those respective cities, while there are also StarCenters in Plano, Richardson and Valley Ranch. Additionally, the StarCenter in McKinney is expanding their facility to include a third ice sheet.

The Stars have come a long way since moving to Dallas in 1993. When the team first set foot in Texas, there were five total sheets of ice in the area (two of which were at shopping malls and didn't host hockey). At that time, there were no high school or travel hockey teams, while only 200 local children were playing the sport and just 225 adults playing in recreational leagues.

As of the Summer of 2018, there were more than 13,000 North Texas kids and nearly 8,000 adults skating and playing recreational hockey on over 20 sheets of ice in the area, including more than 40 high school hockey teams participating in the Stars-run AT&T Metroplex High School Hockey League.

With all the success the Stars have had growing the game and working with USA Hockey & TAHA, it's no surprise that the Lone Star State is beginning to produce world-class hockey talent. Since 2005, 14 native Texans have been drafted into the National Hockey League, including eight who hail directly from the Metroplex (Dallas, Plano, Coppell, Arlington and Lewisville). Ten of those players have been selected since 2008, making Texas a top-15 producer of American NHL draftees in that span. In the summer of 2013, Plano native Seth Jones was selected fourth overall in the NHL Draft by the Nashville Predators, the highest a native Texan has ever been selected.

The Dallas Stars continue to play a crucial role in the grass roots development of the sport in Texas through Rookies, a four-week, try-hockey-for-free program, and Fitness Stars, a physical education program dedicated to reinforcing the importance of a healthy lifestyle through clean eating and unique physical activities. Through these programs, kids will be introduced to the sport of hockey and invited to be part of the Dallas Stars' family for the rest of their lives.

DALLAS STARS FOUNDATION

The Dallas Stars Foundation was established in 1998 to serve as a positive force throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. The heart of the Dallas Stars Foundation is to invest in our communities by creating unique programs that nurture and enrich the lives of those in need.

Since 1998, the Foundation has awarded more than $7 million to local charities through their charitable grants program. Over the years, the Foundation has partnered with numerous non-profit agencies that focus on a myriad of worthwhile causes, including youth hockey, medical and other basic needs for disadvantaged youth, educational and social issues, family support and crisis intervention.

The Dallas Stars Foundation has three pillars of focus for their giving, programs and partnerships: youth hockey, community engagement and health and education. To date, the Foundation has made in-kind and ticket donations to over 1,300 different organizations including schools, non-profit organizations and sports related programs.

The Dallas Stars hosted the 2020 NHL Bridgestone Winter Classic and the outdoor game gave the Foundation a platform to provide an extraordinary opportunity to St. Philip's School and Community Center, a local organization known for providing first-class education and programming to the children of South Dallas since the 1940's. The Dallas Stars Foundation pledged $2 million over five years to St. Philip's, with the money the Foundation granted going to help build the school's new athletic complex and fund summer programming for area youths.

Dallas Stars players, staff and volunteers actively participated in various fundraising events and community events including school and hospital visits, totaling over 2,300 hours volunteered this past season.

Through the continued work of the Foundation, the Dallas Stars organization pledges to support the Metroplex and the state of Texas in order to support community efforts through the great game of hockey.

YOUTH HOCKEY PROGRAMS

The Dallas Stars launched the Rookies program in October 2013 and focuses on teaching children the fundamentals of hockey, the program provided them with all the necessary equipment for the duration of the four-week period. By giving children the opportunity to try the sport of hockey with no strings attached, the program has been the catalyst for growing the sport in Texas.

The Rookies program was influenced and designed by former Stars forward Mike Modano and initially offered for children ages 4-8. Since the inception of the first-of-its-kind program in September 2013, over 7,100 children across 11 ice rinks in Dallas and Austin have been introduced to the sport of hockey. As a result of its overwhelming success, the Rookies program expanded to include boys ages 9-14 and girls ages 4-14 in 2016. Throughout the duration of the program, over 40% of enrolled participants made the commitment to continue with a paid hockey program following the four-week session.

As of the Summer of 2017, the Rookies program extended outside of the Metroplex to include Austin, offering more children the opportunity to try the sport of hockey for free. The Dallas Stars organization is actively looking to expand the program in the current markets as well as finding new ice facilities in the Southwest to grow Rookies beyond the state of Texas.

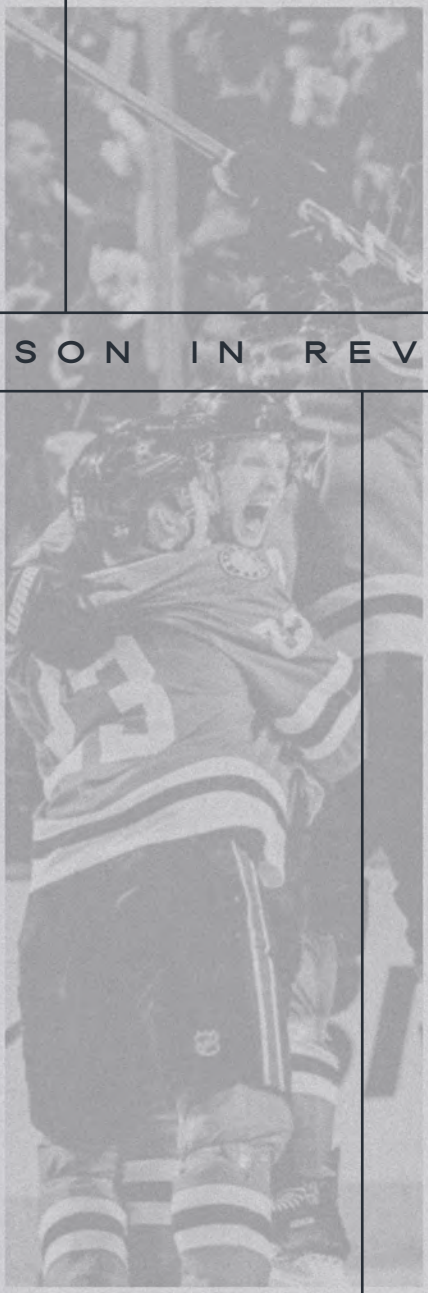
FITNESS STARS

Fitness Stars enters its seventh season after launching at the start of the 2013-14 season. Originally created as a physical education program aimed at fighting childhood obesity through hockey-based fitness challenges, Fitness Stars was offered at 28 DFW area schools in its inaugural season, reaching over 15,000 children.

Due to the program's overwhelming success, Fitness Stars has since expanded and is now offered in over 300 schools in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex and is expected to impact over 206,000 children. Participating schools include Allen ISD, Carrollton-Farmers Branch ISD, Forney ISD, Fort Worth ISD, Frisco ISD, Garland ISD, Grand Prairie ISD, Irving ISD, Lewisville ISD, McKinney ISD, Wolfe City ISD, Wylie ISD, in addition to two individual charter schools.

The Fitness Stars Program is dedicated to reinforcing the importance of a healthy lifestyle through clean eating and unique physical activities. The program is designed to fit within the current curriculum of Physical Eduation teachers to help emphasize the programs and healthy options already in practice.

SEASON IN REVIEW



TIME KEEPS ON SLIPPING

Rick Bowness was named the interim head coach of the Dallas Stars on Dec. 10, 2019 after serving as an assistant coach with the team since June 22, 2018. In his time as interim head coach, Bowness led the Stars to a 20-13-5 record.

On Jan. 1, 2020, Bowness guided the club to a 4-2 win over the Nashville Predators in the 2020 Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic. By serving as bench boss in the game, he became just the third coach in NHL history to have held a head coaching position in five different decades, having previously served as head coach in the 1980s (1988-89: Winnipeg), 1990s (1991-92: Boston; 1992-1995: Ottawa; 1997-98: NY Islanders) and 2000s (2004: Phoenix). He joins Hockey Hall of Fame Honored Members Pat Quinn and Scotty Bowman as the only individuals to have accomplished the feat.

Bowness also served in his 500th career NHL game bench boss on March 7, 2020 against Nashville. The Moncton, New Brunswick native owns a 143-302-48-8 record as head coach in the NHL, including a 20-13-5 mark with the Stars.

DENIS THE MENACE

Stars rookie Denis Gurianov matched a career-high with two goals (2-0=2) on Nov. 2 against Montreal, including scoring his first career penalty shot goal. At 22 years and 148 days old, Gurianov became the third-youngest player in franchise history to record a penalty shot, while it was the club's first penalty shot goal scored since Radek Faksa converted on his attempt on Nov. 30, 2017 at Chicago.

The native of Togliatti, Russia finished the 2019-20 campaign with 29 points (20-9=29) in 64 games. Among League rookies, Gurianov was tied for second in goals (20), shared first in game-winning goals (4), ranked second in power play goals (7), ranked eighth in points (29) and shared 14th in plus/minus rating (+5). Gurianov's 20 goals in 2019-20 rank third in Dallas Stars history and are tied for 14th in franchise history for most goals by a rookie. He also finishes tied for second in Dallas history and fourth in franchise history for most game-winning goals by a rookie (4), while he ranks third in Dallas history and shares 12th in franchise history for most power play goals (7).

ONE FOR THE AGES

The Stars overcame a 3-0 deficit by scoring six-straight goals, including five in the third period, to beat Minnesota, 6-3, on Oct. 29. This marked the first time the Stars have scored six consecutive goals since the team did so on Dec. 31, 2017 in a 6-0 win over San Jose, while it was the first time the team overcame a 3-0 deficit to win since Oct. 13, 2018 against Anaheim (5-3).

Dallas' five goals in the third period against the Wild are the most the team has scored in a single period since the 2008-09 season when the Stars scored six goals in the third period against the New York Rangers on Feb. 6. The Stars' six goals on Oct. 28 all came within a span of 20:18, the fastest the team has scored six goals also since the contest against the Rangers on Feb. 6, 2009 where Dallas scored its six third-period goals in a span of 12:51 of game time.

WE'RE GOING STREAKING!

The Stars matched a franchise record with a seven-game winning streak from Nov. 13 – 25. The team outscored opponents 29-14 over that span, while also going 4-for-19 (21.1%) on the power play and 23-for-25 (92.0%) on the penalty kill. The streak marked just the fifth time in franchise history that the team earned wins in seven consecutive games, while it was the first since the 2007-08 season when the club earned wins in seven-straight games from Jan. 29 – Feb. 11, 2008.

The club also logged a 12-game point streak from Oct. 29 – Nov. 25, posting an 11-0-1 record over that stretch. It marked Dallas' first 12-game point streak since the 2002-03 campaign when the club also logged points in 12-straight games (9-0-3) from Dec. 27 – Jan. 22, while it was just the sixth time in franchise history that the team has earned points in at least 12 consecutive games.

Additionally, Dallas earned a six-game winning streak from Dec. 28 – Jan. 9 for the team's second winning streak of at least six games during the 2019-20 campaign. This marked just the fourth time in franchise history, and the first time since the 2007-08 season that the team has logged multiple winning streaks of at least six games in a single season.

COMEBACK KIDS

The Stars posted nine wins when trailing after the second period in 2019-20, finishing tied for first in the NHL in wins when trailing after the second period. The team's nine wins when trailing going into the final period of play are tied for the third-most in franchise history, while this marks the first time the team has done so since the 2010-11 when it also posted nine wins when trailing after the second period.

Dallas also posted five consecutive come-from-behind wins from Dec. 28 – Jan. 8, erasing two two-goal deficits and three one-goal deficits during that streak. This marked just the second time in franchise history that the club has recorded five-straight comeback wins, and the first since Jan. 23 – 30, 2006

HOME SWEET HOME

From Oct. 29 – Nov. 25, the Dallas Stars logged seven consecutive wins on home ice. The Stars outscored their opponents 31-12 during the stretch, while going 7-for-27 (25.9%) on the power play and 30-for-32 (93.8%) on the penalty kill. Over that span, the club ranked second in the League with a 4.29 goals-per-game average at home and was second with an average of 1.71 goals against-per-game. Dallas' seven-game streak marked its first home winning streak of at least seven games since the 2005-06 season when the team logged eight-straight wins on home ice from Jan. 23 – March 13.

During the streak, the Stars also swept a four-game homestand from Nov. 19 – 25, marking the first time in Dallas Stars history that the team has swept a homestand of at least four games and the third time in Franchise history.

The team finished the 2019-20 regular season ranked second in the NHL having allowed just 76 goals against on home ice, amounting to a 2.24 goals against-per-game average. The Stars also ranked eighth in the NHL with an 83.6% penalty kill percentage at home, going 92-for-110 on the season.

"WE'RE IN THE BUSINESS OF WINNING"

Seven separate Stars skaters each registered at least three game-winning goals in 2019-20, matching a franchise record for most skaters with at least three game-winning tallies in a single season. This marks the 12th time in franchise history, and the 10th since moving to Dallas, that the team has had seven players score three game winners, while it's the first time since the 2017-18 season. The Stars' seven three-game-winning-goal scorers in 2019-20 were tied for second in the NHL.

Captain Jamie Benn scored the game-winning goal in three consecutive games from Nov. 16 – 21. He is just the fourth player in franchise history to score the game-winning goal in three-straight team games, while he is the first since Jere Lehtinen who did so during the 2005-06 season from Nov. 13 – 18.

Forward Tyler Seguin paced Dallas with six game-winning goals in 2019-20, marking the third consecutive season that the forward has scored at least six game-winning markers. He is one of just three NHL players to have scored six-or-more game winners in each of the last three seasons, joining Tampa Bay's Nikita Kucherov and Edmonton's Connor McDavid. Seguin has registered 52 career game-winning goals, 43 of which have come since joining the Stars in 2013-14. His 43 game winners are tied for third in franchise history, while Seguin ranks fourth among all NHL players over that span.

"I'VE GOT FRIENDS IN LOW PLACES"

Stars netminders Ben Bishop and Anton Khudobin combined to finish the 2019-20 campaign ranked second in the NHL with a team goals against average of 2.52, allowing just 174 goals against on the season. Dallas ranked second in the NHL with a 2.24 goals against average on home ice, while the team ranked fourth in the League allowing just 98 goals against on the road and ranked seventh with a road goals against average of 2.80. The club's 2.52 goals against average in 2019-20 is the 12th-best in franchise history and is its lowest since the team posted a 2.44 goals against average in 2018-19.

Over the past two seasons, the Stars have posted a League-leading 2.48 goals against average, allowing just 374 goals in 151 games played over that span. Dallas' netminding duo of Bishop and Khudobin combined to allow just 168 goals against on home ice since the start of the 2018-19 campaign, logging an NHL best 2.24 goals against average at home.

Khudobin led the NHL with a .930 save percentage and was tied for third in the League with a 2.22 goals against average in 2019-20, establishing new career-bests in both categories. The goaltender finished the campaign with a 16-8-4 record in 30 appearances, while his 16 wins match the second-most he's registered in a single season. Khudobin also shared second in the NHL with a career-high three assists (0-3=3) on the season. Bishop finished the 2019-20 season ranked 10th in the NHL with a 2.50 goals against average and was tied for 10th with a .920 save percentage, while he earned a 21-16-4 record with two shutouts in 44 appearances.

TYLER THE CREATOR

Stars forward Tyler Seguin finished the 2019-20 regular season ranked first on the Stars with 33 assists and 50 points (17-33=50). Seguin has now reached the 50-point plateau for the eighth time in his NHL career and in each of the last seven seasons since joining the Stars in 2013-14. He becomes one of just 13 NHL players to have recorded at least 50 points in each of the last seven seasons. Seguin's seven 50-point seasons in a Stars sweater are the third-most in Dallas history and are tied with Dino Ciccarelli and Tim Young for the fifth-most in franchise history.

Seguin tallied an assist (0-1=1) against Buffalo on Jan. 16 for his 500th point (217-283=500) with the Stars. The forward reached the 500-point mark in just 516 games in a Stars sweater, becoming the fifth-fastest skater in franchise history to reach 500 points (Neal Broten - 461, Bobby Smith - 463, Dino Ciccarelli - 465, Mike Modano - 489).

The native of Brampton, Ont. shared second in the NHL and led the Stars with a career-high three overtime goals on the season. Seguin has now posted eight career overtime goals, all coming with Dallas, and is one shy of tying Mike Modano (9) for first in franchise history.

WINTER WONDERLAND

On Jan. 1, 2020, the Dallas Stars hosted the Nashville Predators in the 2020 Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic at Cotton Bowl Stadium - the League's 12th Winter Classic game and 29th outdoor regular-season contest. The Stars overcame a 0-2 deficit in the game, scoring four unanswered goals, including three in a span of 5:37 in the third period, en route to a 4-2 victory. The win marked the fourth-straight comeback win in an NHL outdoor game and of the 29 outdoor games, 15 have featured a come-from-behind win.

Played in front of 85,630 in attendence, the 2020 Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic was the second-largest crowd in the NHL's 102-year history, ranking only behind the 2014 Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic at Michigan Stadium, which saw an attendance of 105,491. The tilt was also the NHL's 18th outdoor game to take place at a football venue, and with a recorded temperature of 54.9 degrees at puck drop, it was also the warmest Winter Classic ever and the fourth-warmest for an NHL regular-season outdoor game.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

Stars defensemen registered 67 points (17-50=67) during the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs, finishing the postseason leading the NHL in assists and points, and sharing first in goals. The 67 points from club blueliners are the most recorded in a postseason in franchise history, while they mark the second-most earned in NHL history, trailing only the 1984-85 Edmonton Oilers whose defensemen logged 77 points (19-58=77).

Defenseman Miro Heiskanen led League blueliners with 20 assists and 26 points (6-20=26) during the 2020 postseason, while fellow defenseman John Klingberg finished second in assists (17) and tied for second in points (4-17=21).

DOWN, BUT NOT OUT

The Stars recorded nine comeback wins during the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs, tying the franchise record for most come-from-behind wins in a single postseason that was established in 1999. Dallas' nine comeback wins is also tied for the second-most in the postseason in NHL history.

The team posted a League-leading five wins in the postseason when trailing after the first period, while Dallas was tied for first with three wins when trailing after the second. Additionally, the Stars earned six wins when allowing the first goal of a game, which also shared first in the NHL during the 2020 playoffs.

Dallas overcame a 3-0 deficit in Game 6 of the Western Conference First Round to beat the Calgary Flames, 7-3, marking the first time in NHL postseason history a team has overcome a three-goal deficit to win by four goals. It was also the first time in Dallas Stars postseason history the club overcame a three-goal deficit to win, while it marked the third time in franchise history.

BEGINNER'S LUCK?

Stars rookie Denis Gurianov posted 17 points (9-8=17) during the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs, ranking first among NHL rookies in the postseason in goals and points. Gurianov also shared first among League rookies with two game-winning goals and was tied for second with two power play goals during the playoffs.

The Togliatti, Russia native matched a franchise record with eight assists as a rookie in the postseason, while his nine goals and 17 points establish new Dallas Stars records and rank second in franchise history. Gurianov also logged five points (4-1=5) in Game 6 of the Western Conference First Round against Calgary, becoming the sixth rookie in NHL history to record at least five points in a playoff game and just the second to do so in a series-clinching game (Joe Mullen, STL, 1982). His four goals in the contest are the most in a single playoff game by any player in franchise history, while it ties the NHL record among rookies.

CAPTAIN AMERICA

Stars forward Joe Pavelski finished the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs ranked second in the NHL with a team-leading 13 goals. With his 13 goals in the postseason, Pavelski becomes the most prolific American-born goal scorer in the postseason in NHL history, having scored 61 career goals in the playoffs.

FOUR SCORE AND FIVE MORE
Gurianov recorded four goals and five points (4-1=5) in Game 6 of the 2020 Western Conference First Round at Calgary, establishing a new franchise record for most goals in a postseason game and tying the franchise record for most points. He is just the second rookie in NHL history to score four goals in a playoff contest (Tony Hrkac, STL - 1988), while he's the sixth rookie to earn at least five points in a game.

IN WITH THE NEW
Gurianov made his Stanley Cup Playoffs debut in 2020, finishing first among all NHL rookies in goals (9) and points (17), tied for first in GWGs (2) and tied for second in PPGs (2). His nine goals and 17 points are the most by a rookie in the postseason in Dallas Stars history.

RECORD BREAKER

Heiskanen established new franchise records for most assists (20) in a postseason, most goals (6) and points (26) by a defenseman, and ranks fourth in franchise history and first in Dallas Stars history for most points in a postseason during the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Thirteen (3-10=13) of his 26 points in the playoffs came during an eight-game point streak, setting a new franchise record for longest point streak by a defenseman.

STAR OF THE SHOW

Heiskanen helped Finland bring home silver at the 2017 U18 World Junior Championship, finishing with a tournament-best 10 assists and was tied for first with a +8 rating, while he led all defensemen and finished second among all skaters with 12 points in seven games. His performance earned him a spot on the tournament All-Star Team and he was named Best Defenseman.

HOME ICE ADVANTAGE

Klingberg scored the series-clinching goal in overtime of Game 6 of the 2019 Western Conference First Round against Nashville, marking the first overtime playoff goal on home ice for the club since Brenden Morrow potted the series-clinching goal during the fourth overtime period in Game 6 of the 2008 Western Conference Semifinals vs. San Jose. He is also just the third defenseman in franchise history to record a postseason overtime goal.

THE BEST OFFENSE...

Klingberg tallied 67 points (8-59=67) during the 2017-18 season. This marks the fifth-most points recorded by a defenseman in franchise history and the second-most in Dallas history behind Sergei Zubov's 71 points in 2005-06.

NEAL BROTEN

Neal Broten began his NHL career with a bang, being named the franchise's Rookie of the Year after setting team records that still stand for most goals, assists and points by a rookie (38-60=98) in the 1981-82 season. Sixteen seasons later, Broten retired as the club's all-time leader in games played (992), assists (593) and points (867) and is fourth in team annals in goals (274). The team's Most Valuable Player in 1984 and 1986, Broten participated in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1986. In that 1985-86 campaign, he became the first American-born player to record 100 points (105) and set the current club mark for most assists in a season with 76. Moving with the team to Texas in 1993, Broten scored the first-ever goal in Dallas Stars history on October 5, 1993 against Detroit. Broten's number seven was retired by the Stars on February 7, 1998 and he was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2000.

BILL GOLDSWORTHY

Bill Goldsworthy began his NHL career with the Boston Bruins in 1964, appearing in just 33 regular-season games and earning 12 points (6-6=12) over parts of three seasons with the Bruins before he was selected by the Minnesota North Stars in the expansion draft in 1967. Goldsworthy would make a name for himself in the NHL with the North Stars through goal-scoring and the invention of his signature goal celebration, the Goldy Shuffle. Goldsworthy registered five 30+ goal seasons in his career, all coming while he was in Minnesota. The native of Waterloo, Ont. was the first player from a post-1967 expansion club to reach the 200- and 250-goal mark, while he eclipsed the 500-point plateau during the 1976-77 season to become the first player in Minnesota North Stars history to accomplish the feat.

Goldsworthy finished his 10-season career with the North Stars in 1977. Over that span, he registered 267 goals, 239 assists and 506 points (267-239=506) in 670 regular-season games. He currently ranks fifth all-time in goals (267), sixth in game-winning goals (34), 10th in points (506) and third in shots on goal (2,237). Goldsworthy was also named to an All-Star four times during his career (1970, 1972, 1974 and 1976). In recognition of his accomplishments, Goldsworthy's number eight was retired by the organization on February 15, 1992. Goldsworthy passed away on March 29, 1996 at the age of 51 due to complications from AIDS.

MIKE MODANO

Mike Modano, the greatest American-born hockey player in NHL history, played 21 seasons in the NHL and is the all-time franchise leader in nearly every category, including games played (1,459), goals (557), assists (802), points (1,359), short-handed goals (29), game-winning goals (92) and power play tallies (156).

A seven-time NHL All-Star, 2014 Hockey Hall of Fame class member, and United States Hockey Hall of Fame inductee, Modano is also the American-born record holder in goals (561) and points (1,374). He was also instrumental in helping the Stars capture the 1999 Stanley Cup championship. The Livonia, Mich., native skated for Team USA at the Olympic Games on three separate occasions, winning the silver medal at the 2002 Games in Salt Lake City. He also captured the gold medal at the 1996 World Cup of Hockey; and was captain of the United States squad at the 2005 World Cup. Modano was drafted first overall in 1988 by the Minnesota North Stars.

On March 8, 2014, the Dallas Stars honored Mike Modano, the greatest player to wear a Stars uniform, by retiring his iconic number 9.

BILL MASTERTON

Bill Masterton was a member of the Minnesota North Stars inaugural NHL team in 1967-68, recording 12 points (4-8=12) in 38 contests before suffering a fatal head injury in a game on Jan. 13, 1968.

A native of Winnipeg, Man., Masterton attended the University of Denver where he played for three seasons with the Pioneers in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA), winning two National Championships in 1960 and 1961. The first player to sign with the new Minnesota club, Masterton made his NHL debut in the team's inaugural game on Oct. 11, 1967 against the St. Louis Blues, scoring the first goal in franchise history. In a game against the Oakland Seals on Jan. 13, 1968, Masterton suffered a severe head injury when his head hit the ice after being checked. The 29-year-old would eventually succumb to his injury as he passed away just two days later on Jan. 15.

In his memory, the Professional Hockey Writers' Association created the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy in 1968, an award presented annually to the "National Hockey League player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." Masterton's number 19 has never been worn by another player in franchise history, and was retired by the organization on January 17, 1987.

JERE LEHTINEN

Jere Lehtinen was originally selected by the Minnesota North Stars in the fourth round (88th overall) of the 1992 NHL Draft before making his NHL debut with Dallas in 1995-96. Lehtinen played his entire 14-season NHL career in a Dallas Stars sweater and recorded 514 points (243-271=514) in 875 regular-season games, landing himself on the Stars franchise leaderboard in a number of categories.

At the time of his retirement on Dec. 8, 2010, the Espoo, Finland native ranked third in franchise history in games played (875), seventh in goals (243), eighth in points (514) and 10th in assists (271). Lehtinen also finished third in game-winning goals (37) and sixth in power play goals (77), while he continues to sit atop the franchise leaderboard with a career +174 plus/minus rating.

Best known for his two-way play, Lehtinen won the Frank J. Selke Trophy as the NHL's top defensive forward three times in 1998, 1999 and 2003. The forward also earned recognition being named to the 1998 All-Star Game, his only All-Star appearance in his 14-season career. Lehtinen helped the Stars capture the 1999 Stanley Cup, finishing tied for second on the team with 10 goals and ranked fifth with 13 points (10-3=13) while appearing in all 23 postseason games during the team's championship run.

On Nov. 24, 2017, the Dallas Stars recognized Lehtinen's illustrious career by retiring his number 26. Lehtinen is the fifth player in Stars franchise history to have his number retired, and the third since the club moved to Dallas before the 1993-94 season.

ON JANUARY 24, 2007, THE STAGE WAS SET FOR DALLAS TO HOST THE

55TH NHL ALL-STAR GAME

AT AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER.

This marked the first time since the team moved to Dallas that it was hosting the All-Star festivities, and just the second time in franchise history as the club also hosted the 1972 All-Star Game in Minnesota. Defenseman Philippe Boucher and goaltender Marty Turco represented the Stars in the game as they both were voted onto the Western Conference roster through the fan voting process, while Boucher was named a starter in the contest, replacing Anaheim's Scott Niedermayer who could not play in the game due to injury.

Former Dallas bench boss Lindy Ruff also participated in the All-Star Game as he was named head coach of the Eastern Conference All-Stars. With a capacity crowd of 18,532 on hand, the West defeated the East in the contest by a final score of 12-9, with then-Buffalo Sabres forward Daniel Briere being named the MVP of the game.

ON OCTOBER 14, 1995, the Stars set a franchise record for the fastest three goals in a game, scoring three times in 44 seconds of the final minute of the third period to cap an exciting 6-5 comeback victory over Boston at Reunion Arena. Trailing 5-3, Kevin Hatcher banged home a rebound at 19:11 of the third period to pull the Stars within one goal. At the 19:44 mark, Mike Modano fired a wrist shot past Bruins' goalie Craig Billington to even the score at 5-5. On the ensuing faceoff, Mike Kennedy hustled to the corner to Billington's left, dug the puck loose and sent a centering pass to Guy Carbonneau, who fired the puck past Billington at 19:55 for the win. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the only game in NHL history that a team trailed by two goals in the final minute of the game and came back to score three goals and win the game in regulation.

APRIL 4TH

1968: Dave Balon scores the first playoff goal in franchise history. Balon lit the lamp at 3:54 of the third period in Game 1 of the North Stars' Quarterfinals matchup against the Los Angeles Kings. Bill Goldsworthy had the lone assist (0-1=1) on the goal as the North Stars lost the game, 2-1. Goaltender Cesare Maniago made 38 saves.

APRIL 5TH

1972: The Stars record a shutout against the St. Louis Blues. Goaltender Gump Worsley recorded his fifth career playoff shutout with a 27 save performance in Game 1 of the North Stars' 1972 Quarterfinals matchup against the Blues. Forward Dean Prentice (2-0=2) opened up the scoring in the first period and added another tally in the third.

APRIL 6TH

1990: Mike Modano makes his playoff debut. After recording 105 points (39-66=105) in 41 games for the Prince Albert Raiders of the Western Hockey League, Modano made his NHL debut in Game 2 of the North Stars' 1989 Division Semi-Finals matchup against the Chicago Blackhawks. Modano was held off the scoresheet, recording two shots and four penalty minutes as the Stars lost, 5-3.

APRIL 7TH

1973: The North Stars shut out the Flyers. Forward Dennis Hextall (1-0=1) and defensemen Lou Nanne (1-0=1) and Barry Gibbs (1-0=1) scored for the North Stars. Forward Danny Grant also added two goals (2-0=2) – a career high for him in a playoff game. Goaltender Cesare Maniago stopped all 33 shots he faced as the North Stars blanked the Flyers, 5-0, to take a 2-1 series lead in their Quarterfinals matchup.

1983: The North Stars beat the Maple Leads in overtime. Bobby Smith scored at 5:03 of overtime to help the North Stars defeat the Maple Leafs, 5-4, in Game 2 of their Norris Division Semifinals matchup. Smith's two goals and three points (2-1=3) paced the North Stars. Goaltender Don Beaupre made 35 saves to earn the win.

APRIL 8TH

1981: The North Stars won their first game in Boston. Steve Payne recorded the first playoff hat trick (3-0=3) in franchise history, with his final goal coming at 3:34 of the first overtime period, to lift the Stars past the Bruins, 5-4, in Game 1 of their 1981 Preliminary Round matchup. This was the first time in the regular season or playoffs that the North Stars had won in Boston in franchise history. They were previously 0-28-7.

APRIL 9TH

1968: The North Stars picked up their first playoff win in franchise history. With a four-point performance from forwards Bill Collins (2-2=4) and Ray Cullen (1-3=4), the North Stars came out on top, 7-5, over the Los Angeles Kings in Game 3 of the 1968 Quarterfinals.

1981: Tim Young records a five point game. North Stars forward Tim Young registered the first four assist and five-point night (1-4=5) in franchise postseason history. The North Stars defeated the Bruins, 9-6, in Game 2 of their Preliminary Round series against the Boston Bruins. North Stars forward Bobby Smith would match both records with his own five point (1-4=5) night on April 10, 1982.

APRIL 10TH

2008: The Stars shut out the Ducks on the road. The Stars came out flying as goals from forwards Steve Ott (1-0=1) and Loui Eriksson (1-0=1) helped put them ahead in the first period. Jere Lehtinen (1-1=2) and Brenden Morrow (1-2=3) added goals in the second period, while Goaltender Marty Turco turned away all 23 shots he saw as the Stars came away with a 4-0 victory.

2019: The Stars open up their series with Nashville with a victory. Miro Heiskanen recorded his first Stanley Cup playoff goal and added an assist (1-1=2) to help the Stars come out on top over the Nashville Predators, 3-2, in Game 1 of their First Round series. Forwards Alexander Radulov (1-0=1) and Mats Zuccarello (1-0=1) also found the back of the net while goaltender Ben Bishop made 30 saves in the contest.

1980: The North Stars sweep their Preliminary Round playoff series against the Toronto Maple Leafs. Forward Al MacAdam scored just 32 seconds into overtime to end Game 3, 4-3, as the Stars swept the Maple Leafs by a series score of 3-0. Forward Steve Christoff racked up two goals (2-1=3) while Mike Eaves (0-2=2) and Curt Giles (0-2=2) both added a pair of assists.

2003: The Dallas Stars set numerous records in their first playoff game and win at American Airlines Center. Scott Young (2-1=3) and Sergei Zubov (1-1=2) combined for three goals in the first period while Marty Turco turned aside 12 of the 13 shots he faced as the Stars rolled over the Edmonton Oilers by a score of 6-1. The Stars' shot differential of 28 (41-13), stands as the highest shot differential margin (+28) in a playoff game in Dallas Stars history. This was also the most goals scored, by the Stars, in a playoff game in Dallas Stars history.

APRIL 12TH

1970: The North Stars recorded their first playoff shutout in franchise history. Cesare Maniago stopped all 34 shots he faced to shut out the Blues in Game 4 of their 1970 Quarterfinals series.

2004: Sergei Zubov records his 100th career postseason point. With an assist on Jason Arnott's first period power play goal in Game 3 of the Stars' Western Conference Quarterfinals series against the Colorado Avalanche, Zubov recorded his 100th career point in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Zubov ranks first in playoff assists (57), points (15-57=72) and powerplay points (36) for a defenseman in franchise history. He also shares first in goals (15) and shorthanded points (3).

2007: Marty Turco records his first career playoff shutout. Marty Turco turned aside all 35 shots he faced while Jeff Halpern (1-0=1) and Joel Lundqvist (1-0=1) found the back of the net as the Stars beat the Vancouver Canucks, 2-0, in Game 2 of their Western Conference Quarterfinals series.

APRIL 14TH

2016: The Stars shut out the Wild. The Stars held the Wild to 22 total shots as forwards Jamie Benn (1-2=3) and Jason Spezza (1-1=2) lead the team in scoring. Goaltender Kari Lehtonen recorded his second career playoff shutout as the Stars opened up their First Round series against the Wild with a 4-0 victory.

APRIL 15TH

1971: The North Stars advance past the Blues for the first time in franchise history. Forwards Doug Mohns (2-1=3) and Bobby Rousseau (1-2=3) both recorded team-high three point games as the North Stars defeated the Blues, 5-2, in Game 6 of their Quarterfinals matchup against the Blues. This victory secured the series, 4-games-to-2, for the North Stars to advance to the Semifinals versus the Montreal Canadiens.

1986: Dennis Maruk sets the single series scoring record. With 13 points (4-9=13) in the North Stars' five-game-long Division Semifinals Series against the St. Louis Blues, forward Dennis Maruk set the franchise record for most points in a single playoff series. The Toronto, Ont. native is one of four players to do so in five games or less (others: Wayne Gretzky [x5], Mark Messier, Newsy Lalonde) and is the only player to do so and have their team be eliminated.

APRIL 16TH

1981: Steve Payne scores the fastest overtime goal in franchise playoff history. By striking just 22 seconds into the first overtime in Game 1 of their Quarterfinals bout against the Buffalo Sabres, forward Steve Payne would give the North Stars a 4-3 victory and set the record for the fastest playoff overtime goal in franchise history. Payne led all North Stars forwards in scoring with two goals (2-0=2). Six days later, on April 22, 1981, Payne would set the franchise record for goals scored in a single playoff series (7).

2014: Jamie Benn records his first career playoff goal in his playoff debut. Jamie Benn scored a power play goal at 16:36 of the second period to notch his first career goal in the NHL postseason. Tyler Seguin also inked the scoresheet in his first playoff game as a member of the Dallas Stars.

APRIL 17TH

1994: The Dallas Stars play in their first playoff game. The Lone Star State saw its first ever playoff game and victory when Dallas beat the St. Louis Blues, 5-3, at Reunion Arena in Game 1 of the Western Conference Quarterfinals. Mike Modano (0-2=2), Russ Courtnall (0-3=3), Brent Gilchrist (2-0=2), Grant Ledyard (1-1=2) and Paul Cavallini (0-2=2) all recorded multi-point nights. Darcy Wakaluk earned the first playoff win in Dallas Stars history with a 33 save performance.

2019: John Klingberg records a career-high for points in a playoff game. The Swedish defenseman recorded a trio of assists (0-3=3) in Game 4 of the Stars' First Round series against the Nashville Predators to set a new career high for points in a playoff game. Klingberg also tied Sergei Zubov for most points in one playoff game among club blueliners in Dallas Stars history.

APRIL 18TH

1968: The North Stars won their first playoff series in franchise history. The North Stars scored nine goals in game seven and overcame both 2-0 and 3-2 series deficits to take their 1968 Quarterfinals matchup against the Los Angeles Kings, 4-3.

1984: The North Stars defeat the Blues, 6-0. Six different skaters scored for the North Stars and five forwards recorded multi-point games as the North Stars skated their way to a blowout victory over the Blues in Game 5 of their Division Finals series. The victory matches the franchise record for the highest margin of victory in a playoff game and is also the highest margin of victory in a playoff shutout in franchise history.

1985: The North Stars score eight goals in their Norris Division Finals series against the Chicago Blackhawks. The North Stars scored six straight goals and added two more insurance goals in the second period to overcome an early 3-0 deficit and take Game 1 of their Norris Division Finals series against the Black Hawks. Goaltender Gilles Meloche's 42 save performance ties the franchise record for most saves in a single postseason game that did not go to overtime.

2000: The Stars beat the Oilers, 4-3, in Game 5 of their playoff series. Forwards Guy Carbonneau (1-0=1), Brett Hull (1-1=2) and Mike Modano (1-0=1), along with defenseman Richard Matvichuk (1-0=1), all scored for Dallas as they powered past the Oilers at Skyreach Centre to take a commanding 3-1 series lead in their Western Conference Quarterfinals matchup.

APRIL 19TH

2003: Sergei Zubov sets a record and the Stars reach a number of milestones in a win against the Oilers. Dallas clinched their Western Conference Quarterfinals series against Edmonton, 4-2, with a 5-2 victory in Game 6. With a two assist (0-2=2) effort, Sergei Zubov set the record for most points (4-6=10) in a series by a defenseman in franchise history. This marked the last time the Stars would face the Oilers in the playoffs after meeting them six times in the last seven years. This was also Dallas' 100th postseason game.

APRIL 20TH

2016: The Stars beat the Wild on the road after a goal-filled second period. Dallas and Minnesota combined for five goals in the second period as the team from the Lone Star State came out on top, 3-2, in Game 4 of their Western Conference First Round series. Backup goaltender Antti Niemi won his first career playoff game with the Stars after recording 28 saves in the contest. Niemi's 36 career playoff wins are the most in NHL history for a goaltender with less than 70 career playoff games played. Forward Jason Spezza registered two points (1-1=2) in the contest, including the game-winning goal at 18:51 of the second period.

APRIL 21ST

2001: Ed Belfour wins 79th career Stanley Cup Playoff game. The Carman, Man. native made 20 saves as Dallas toppled Edmonton, 3-1, in Game 6 to win their Western Conference Quarterfinals series. This would be Belfour's last postseason victory as a member of the Stars. Belfour's 88 career wins in the Stanley Cup Playoffs currently shares fourth in NHL history, while his 44 postseason victories and eight shutouts as a member of the Stars both rank first in franchise history.

2007: Marty Turco records his third shutout in one series. With a 21 save performance, Marty Turco recorded his third shutout of the Stars' Western Conference Quarterfinals series against the Vancouver Canucks. Turco is one of only two goalies in League history to record three shutouts in one series and lose the series (other: Turk Broda, 1950). The Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. native's .952 save percentage is the fifth-highest single series save percentage in League history (min: 200 shots against).

2014: Dallas shuts out Anaheim in Game 3. Captain Jamie Benn opened the scoring for the Stars, while forwards Valeri Nichushkin (1-0=1) and Ryan Garbutt (1-0=1) also found the back of the net. Goaltender Kari Lehtonen recorded his first career playoff shutout and set a career high for saves in a single playoff game after he stopped all 37 shots he faced.

APRIL 22ND

1994: The Stars win their first playoff overtime game in Dallas Stars history. Paul Cavallini scored 8:34 into the first overtime period to lift the Stars past the Blues in Game 3 of their Western Conference Quarterfinals matchup against the Blues. Russ Courtnall (0-1=1) and Mike Modano (1-1=2) added the assists on the tally.

2019: Dallas knocks Nashville out of the playoffs with an overtime series-clinching goal from John Klingberg. The Swedish defenseman's goal, his first of the 2019 postseason and first career playoff overtime goal, lifted the Stars past the Predators at 17:02 of the first overtime period. Forward Blake Comeau also tallied a goal (1-0=1) while goaltender Ben Bishop made 47 saves.

APRIL 23RD

2014: The Stars complete a comeback against the Anaheim Ducks. After the Ducks scored two goals in the second half of the first period the Stars tallied four unanswered goals across the last two periods to tie up their series at two games apiece. Vernon Fiddler (1-1=2) and Shawn Horcoff (0-2=2) both recorded multi-point games for the Stars. Kari Lehtonen shut the door for the last two periods to record the win.

APRIL 24TH

1994: The Dallas Stars win their first playoff series. Mike Modano scored twice (2-0=2) to help the Stars erase a first period deficit and sweep the St. Louis Blues – defeating them 2-1 in Game 4. Darcy Wakaluk started in all four games and saved 126 of the 136 shots he faced during the series.

2003: Dallas sets multiple records in its longest game in franchise history. The Mighty Ducks of Anaheim scored 48 seconds into the fifth overtime period to end the fourth longest game in NHL history and deliver the Ducks a 1-0 series lead in the Western Conference Semifinals. Mike Modano (55:29), Sergei Zubov (63:51) and Marty Turco's (140:48) all set franchise records for most time on ice for a forward, defenseman, and goaltender, respectively. Zubov's 63:51 of ice time also stands as the most recorded by any skater in NHL history.

APRIL 25TH

2008:Dallas defeats the San Jose Sharks, in overtime, to take a 1-0 series lead. Brenden Morrow (2-0=2) and Mike Ribeiro (0-2=2) both recorded multi-point games. Morrow's overtime winner, the second of his playoff career, would give the Stars their third road victory of the 2008 playoffs.

APRIL 26TH

2003: Forward Mike Modano scores his 50th career playoff goal. Modano's even-strength tally at 8:39 of the second period in Game 2 of the Western Conference Semifinals against the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim was the 50th postseason goal of his career. Modano's 58 career playoff goals are the most in franchise history and are tied for 37th in NHL history, while his 15 game-winning goals are tied for the 11th in League history.

APRIL 27TH

1997: The Stars even up their series against the Oilers. Forwards Jere Lehtinen (1-1=2), Bob Bassen (1-0=1) and Mike Modano (1-0=1) all found the back of the net to propel the Stars to a 3-2 victory over the Edmonton Oilers and tie up their Western Conference Quarterfinals series at three games apiece. Goaltender Andy Moog saved 33 of 35 shots he faced to pick up the victory. Moog's 68 career postseason victories ranks 11th among all-time League goaltenders.

2008: Brad Richards records four points in one game. Brad Richards scored once and added a trio of assists (1-3=4) in Game 2 of the Stars' Conference Semi-Finals matchup against the San Jose Sharks. This marked the first time in Dallas Stars history that a Stars player has recorded four points in one playoff game.

2019: Dallas kills off five powerplays en route to beating the Blues, 4-2. Dallas' penalty kill went a perfect five for five against the St. Louis Blues in Game 2 of their Second Round series. Since 1993-94, Dallas' 85.3% penalty kill in the playoffs is second best in the League. The Stars have played in 96 playoff games without giving up a powerplay goal, good for seventh in the league (1994-Present).

APRIL 28TH

1981: The North Stars win their sixth straight playoff road game. With a 4-1 victory over the Calgary Flames in Game 1 of the 1981 Semifinals, the North Stars set a franchise record by winning six straight playoff road games in a single season (April 8 – April 28, 1981). The North Stars scored four or more goals in each of those six games and gave up a goal or less in five of those six games.

2006: Dallas defeats Colorado at the Pepsi Center. Forward Niklas Hagman led the Stars with two goals (2-0=2), including the game winner, to push the Stars past the Avalanche in Game 4 of their Western Conference Quarterfinals series. Defenseman Sergei Zubov recorded a career-high three assists (0-3=3), including the primary assist on the game-winning goal. Goaltender Marty Turco turned aside 22 of the 23 shots he saw.

APRIL 29TH

2008: The Stars score once in the third period and once in overtime to give themselves a commanding 3-0 lead over the San Jose Sharks. Defenseman Sergei Zubov tallied his first goal (1-0=1) of the 2008 playoffs to tie the game up at one before defenseman Mattias Norstrom scored the only playoff overtime goal (1-0=1) of his career to lead the Stars to victory. The Stars would go on to close out the series in six games.

APRIL 30TH

1998: Pat Verbeek records his 50th career playoff point in a victory against the San Jose Sharks. The forward registered the primary assist on Mike Modano's first period power play tally to give himself 50 career points in the postseason. Jamie Langenbrunner added a pair of assists (0-2=2) and Ed Belfour stopped 18 shots to lift Dallas past San Jose, 3-2, and give them a 3-games-to-2 series lead.

MAY 1ST

2019: Dallas evens up their series with St. Louis. With four straight goals courtesy of forwards Jason Dickinson (1-0=1), Jason Spezza (1-0=1), defenseman John Klingberg (1-0=1) and forward Roope Hintz (1-0=1), the Stars powered past the Blues, 4-2, in Game 4 of their Second Round bout. Forwards Mats Zuccarello (0-2=2) and Tyler Seguin (0-2=2) also potted a pair of assists in the game.

MAY 2ND

1998: The Stars advance to the Western Conference Semifinals. The Stars scored three unanswered goals, including a Mike Keane overtime game-winner, to defeat the San Jose Sharks, 3-2, on the road in Game 6 and advance to their Western Conference Semifinals series against the Edmonton Oilers. Keane's multi-goal (2-0=2) performance was the second of his postseason career.

MAY 3RD

2019: The Stars take a series lead against the Blues. The Stars jumped out to an early lead off a Jason Spezza tally (1-0=1) in the first period. Esa Lindell added the eventual game-winner (1-0=1) in the second period while Ben Bishop made 37 saves to record the win in Game 6 of the Second Round. Bishop's 212 saves made in the series stands as the third-most in any one series in franchise history.

MAY 4TH

2008: The Dallas Stars come out on top in a quadruple overtime thriller. Brenden Morrow (1-0=1) scored on the power play just over nine minutes into the fourth overtime period to lead the Stars past the San Jose Sharks in Game 6 of their Conference Semifinals matchup against the Sharks. Marty Turco made a career-high 61 saves in the contest. Since 1993-94, the Stars have had a League-record three playoff series feature four or more overtime games (1999, 2001, 2008).

MAY 5TH

1981: Dino Ciccarelli records a hat trick. The future Hall of Famer scored three of the North Stars' seven goals in a 7-4 victory over the Calgary Flames in Game 4 of their Semifinals series. Ciccarelli's third goal, his 10th of the 1981 Stanley Cup Playoffs, stood as the eventual game winner. Kevin Maxwell (1-1=2), Tom McCarthy (0-2=2) and Bobby Smith (1-3=4) were the other North Stars skaters to register multi-point outings.

2000: The Stars tally two shorthanded goals. Guy Carbonneau (1-0=1) and Sergei Zubov (1-0=1) scored twice while shorthanded to lead the Stars past the San Jose Sharks, 5-4, in Game 4 of their Conference Semifinals series. Dallas' two shorthanded goals are the most in a single playoff game in Dallas Stars history.

2016: The Stars pick up their first overtime win of the 2016 playoffs. Forward Cody Eakin (1-0=1) netted a goal at 2:58 of the first overtime period to even the Stars' Western Conference Second Round series against the St. Louis Blues at two games apiece. Forwards Jamie Benn (0-2=2) and Patrick Sharp (1-1=2) both registered multi-point games by picking up assists on Eakin's tally.

MAY 6TH

1991: Minnesota rolls over Edmonton in Game 3. The North Stars climbed to a two-games-to-one series lead over the Oilers after they beat them, 7-3, in Game 3. 10 different North Stars forwards were credited with points on the scoresheet while goaltender Jon Casey saved 26 Oilers shots.

1999: Ed Belfour wins his 50th career postseason game. Belfour made 23 saves in Game 1 of the Western Conference Semifinals to earn the win and shutout as he became the 13th goaltender in League history to record 50 or more wins in the postseason (now: 19 goaltenders). No goaltender won more playoff games than Belfour (44) during his time with the Stars from 1997-98 – 2000-01.

MAY 7TH

2000: The Stars win their eighth consecutive playoff game on home ice and Joe Nieuwendyk scored his 50th career playoff goal. With a 4-1 win over the San Jose Sharks in Game 5 of the Western Conference Semifinals, Dallas won their eighth consecutive home playoff game (spanning June 10, 1999 – May 7, 2000) to tie a franchise record. Forward Scott Thornton paced the Stars with three points (1-2=3) including the eventual game-winning goal. Joe Nieuwendyk's goal (1-0=1) at 10:31 of the first period was his 50th career goal in the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

2019: Ben Bishop sets a new career high for saves. Goaltender Ben Bishop stopped 52 out of the 54 pucks he saw during Game 7 of the Stars' Second Round series to set a new career-high for saves in a game. The Stars would end up losing the game in double overtime, 3-2, to St. Louis as the Blues advanced in the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

MAY 8TH

1991: The North Stars score five unanswered goals against the Oilers. Five different skaters scored for the North Stars as they defeated the Edmonton Oilers, 5-1, in Game 4 of their Clarence Campbell Conference Finals series. Mike Modano (1-2=3) and Brian Bellows (0-3=3) led the way for Minnesota with a pair of three point efforts.

MAY 9TH

1981: The North Stars advance to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time in franchise history. A five-goal effort from the North Stars, including three in the third period, helped lead the North Stars to a 5-3 victory and four-games-to-two series victory over the Calgary Flames. The North Stars also defeated the Boston Bruins (three-games-to-zero) and the Buffalo Sabres (four-games-to-one) before meeting the Flames.

MAY 10TH

1991: The North Stars advance to the Stanley Cup Final. Defensemen Mark Tinordi (1-0=1) and forwards Marc Bureau (0-1=1) and Bobby Smith (0-1=1) each scored a goal for the North Stars to help the team defeat the Oilers, 3-2, and take the series four-games-to-one. The North Stars advanced to their second Stanley Cup Final in franchise history (previously: 1981).

MAY 11TH

1998: The Stars prevail over the Oilers in a goaltender's duel. Dallas forward Benoit Hogue broke the tie at 13:07 of the first overtime to give the Stars a 1-0 victory over the Oilers in Game 3 of their Conference Semifinals series. Goaltenders Ed Belfour and Curtis Joseph combined to make 55 saves.

MAY 12TH

1999: The Stars and Blues head to overtime for the third consecutive game. St. Louis forward Pierre Turgeon scored 5:42 into the first overtime frame to lead the Blues past the Stars, 3-2, in Game 4 of their Western Conference Semifinals series. This marked the third consecutive contest between the two where the game went into overtime.

MAY 13TH

1998: The Stars defeat the Oilers to take a 3-1 series lead. Goals from Guy Carbonneau (1-0=1) and Benoit Hogue (2-0=2), along with a 23 save performance from Ed Belfour, propelled the Stars to a 3-1 victory in Game 4 and a 3-1 series lead in the 1998 Western Conference Semifinals.

MAY 14TH

1995: Dallas scores four in victory over the Red Wings. Forward Greg Adams recorded a pair of goals (2-0=2) and defenseman Paul Cavallini lead all Stars skaters with a pair of assists (0-2=2). Goaltender Andy Moog recorded 34 saves on 35 shots faced as the Stars won their first game of the Western Conference Quarterfinals.

2008: Mike Modano records his 15th playoff game-winning goal and Marty Turco earns his 20th postseason victory. The forward's power play tally at 5:35 of the third period in Game 4 of the Stars' Western Conference Finals bout against the Detroit Red Wings moved him into a tie for ninth all-time (currently: tied 11th). Marty Turco made 33 saves in the winning effort to earn his 20th career victory in the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

MAY 15TH

2000: The Stars defeat the Avalanche, 3-2, in Game 2. Forward Mike Modano recorded a pair of first period goals (2-0=2), Dallas' first goals of the series, to help the Stars tie up their series with Colorado at one game apiece. Modano's power play goal was one of two for him this series. The Livonia, Mich. native's four power play goals in the postseason led all League skaters.

MAY 16TH

1998: The Stars clinch their series against the Oilers with a 2-1 home win. Goals from Derian Hatcher (1-1=2) and Greg Adams (1-0=1), along with 18 saves from Ed Belfour, advanced Dallas past Edmonton, four-games-to-one, in the Western Conference Semifinals. Belfour's 0.77 goals against average is tied for fourth and his .967 save percentage ranks sixth in League history for a goaltender in a single playoff series (minimum 300 minutes of time on ice).

MAY 17TH

1999: Dallas defeats St. Louis in Game 6. A Mike Modano goal at 2:21 of overtime lifted the Stars past the Blues, 2-1, in Game 6 as the team from the Lone Star State advanced to the Western Conference Finals against the Colorado Avalanche. Only 17 playoff series in NHL history have had four or more games go to an overtime period.

2008: Marty Turco leads the Stars past the Red Wings. Goaltender Marty Turco made 38 saves and recorded an assist on the game-winning goal to help the Stars win, 2-1, in Game 5 of the Western Conference Finals against the Detroit Red Wings. With the victory, Turco became just the third goaltender in franchise history to win 10 or more postseason games in a single season.

MAY 19TH

1981: Brad Maxwell records a four-point game. North Stars defenseman Brad Maxwell set a franchise record for assists and points by a defenseman in a playoff game when he recorded four points (0-4=4) against the New York Islanders in Game 4 of the Stanley Cup Final. Bobby Smith (1-1=2), Al MacAdam (1-2=3) and Steve Payne (1-1=2) recorded multi-point games for the North Stars as well. In the 1981 playoffs, Minnesota was the only team besides the Edmonton Oilers to hold New York to two or fewer goals in a game.

1991: The North Stars set a franchise record by winning their eighth home playoff game in a row. The North Stars defeated the Penguins, 3-1, in Game 3 of the Stanley Cup Final to win their franchise-record eighth home playoff game in a row (April 10 – May 19, 1991). Forwards Gaetan Duchesne (1-0=1), Dave Gagner (1-0=1) and Bobby Smith (1-0=1) all potted goals for Minnesota.

MAY 21ST

2000: Belfour wins his 10th game of the Playoffs and Brett Hull records his 150th postseason point. Belfour stopped all but one of the 39 shots he faced while forward Brett Hull (2-1=3) recorded his 150th career postseason point to lead the Stars to victory over the Avalanche, 4-1, in Game 4 of the Western Conference Finals. With the victory, Belfour became one of only five goaltenders in League history to win 10 or more playoff games in three consecutive seasons (others: Patrick Roy, Billy Smith, Ken Dryden, Corey Crawford).

MAY 22ND

1999: The Stars drop Game 1 to the Avalanche, 2-1. Dallas opened the scoring early courtesy of a Brett Hull goal at 8:42 of the first but could not hold onto the lead as goals by Colorado's Peter Forsberg and Valeri Kamensky secured Game 1 of the Western Conference Finals for the Avalanche. Ed Belfour made 26 saves in net for the Stars and Mike Modano tallied the lone assist on Hull's goal.

MAY 23RD

2000: The Stars defeat the Avalanche in overtime. Joe Nieuwendyk scored at 12:10 of the first overtime to secure Game 3 of their Western Conference Finals series, 3-2. Jere Lehtinen (1-0=1) and Brett Hull (1-1=2) also potted goals. Hull and Mike Modano (0-2=2) paced all Stars skaters with two points.

MAY 24TH

1999: Dallas evens up the series at home ice. Dave Reid (1-0=1) and Sergei Zubov (1-1=2) both scored their first goals of the 1999 playoffs. Joe Nieuwendyk (1-0=1) and Mike Modano (1-1=2) continued their consistent offensive contributions to help take Game 2 against the Avalanche, 4-2. The Stars outshot the Avalanche by 26 shots (45-19), good for the third highest margin of shot differential in a single playoff game in franchise history.

MAY 26TH

1998: Balanced forward scoring helps the Stars defeat the Red Wings, 3-1, in Game 2. Forward Bob Bassen (1-0=1) opened up the scoring for the Stars before Greg Adams (1-0=1) and Guy Carbonneau (1-0=1) tallied goals in the second and third period, respectively. Ed Belfour picked up his first win of the Western Conference Finals with a 27 save performance.

MAY 27TH

2000: Dallas wins Game 7 of the Western Conference Final, 4-3. Sergei Zubov (1-1=2), Mike Modano (1-1=2) and Roman Lyashenko (1-0=1) found the back of the net for the Stars as Ed Belfour made 31 saves to advance to the 2000 Stanley Cup Final. The Stars became the fourth team to make appearances in back-to-back Stanley Cup Finals since the NHL expanded to a 16-team playoff format in 1979-80 (others: New York Islanders [1980-84], Edmonton Oilers [1983-85, 1987-88], Pittsburgh Penguins [1991-92], and Detroit Red Wings [1997-98]).

MAY 28TH

1999: The Stars fall to the Avalanche, 3-2, in overtime of Game 4. Offensive contributions from Jamie Langenbrunner (1-1=2), Brett Hull (1-0=1) and Joe Nieuwendyk (0-2=2) were not enough to complete the comeback from a 2-0 first period deficit after Chris Drury scored at 19:29 of overtime. Both teams finished the game at 45 shots apiece.

MAY 30TH

2000: The Stars give up seven goals to the Avalanche in Game 5. Colorado took a 3-games-to-2 series lead after they recorded seven goals against the Stars in a 7-5 victory. Mike Modano (0-2=2), Mike Keane (1-1=2), Pat Verbeek (1-1=2), Guy Carbonneau (1-1=2), Brett Hull (1-1=2) and Darryl Sydor (1-1=2) all recorded multi-point games for the Stars. May 30, 1999 and May 30, 2000 mark the only two days in Dallas Stars history where they have given up seven or more goals in a single playoff game.

JUNE 1ST

2000: Mike Modano records his 100th career playoff point. Modano tallied the secondary assist on Brett Hull's game winning goal in Game 1 of the 2000 Stanley Cup Final against the New Jersey Devils. Modano finished the game with two assists (0-2=2), a +2 rating and one shot in 20:35 of ice time.

JUNE 3RD

1998: Mike Keane registers his 50th career playoff point in a Stars overtime victory. The forward recorded two points (1-1=2), including his 50th career playoff point, to help the Stars beat the Red Wings, 3-2, and stave off elimination in Game 5 of the Western Conference Finals. Guy Carbonneau also finished with two points (1-1=2), while defenseman Craig Ludwig registered his first point (0-1=1) of the 1998 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Jamie Langenbrunner's goal 46 seconds into overtime is the fastest playoff overtime goal scored by Dallas in Dallas Stars history.

JUNE 4TH

1999: The Stars advance to their first Stanley Cup Final in Dallas Stars history. With a controlling 4-1 victory over the Colorado Avalanche in Game 7 of their Conference Finals matchup, the Dallas Stars advanced to their first Stanley Cup in just their sixth season since moving to the Lone Star State. Mike Keane found the back of the net twice (2-0=2) in the second period while Ed Belfour allowed just one goal on 19 shots.

JUNE 5TH

2000: Three quick, unanswered third period goals by the Devils sink the Stars. Joe Nieuwendyk opened up the scoring (1-0=1) on a second period power play tally. The Devils took a three-games-to-one lead in the series after they scored thrice within 3 minutes and 41 seconds to quickly take and hold onto a lead in Game 4 of the Stanley Cup Final.

JUNE 8TH

2000: The Stars win in triple overtime. Mike Modano scored at 6:21 of the third overtime period to break the scoreless tie and lead the Stars over the Devils, 1-0, in Game 5 of the Stanley Cup Final. Goaltender Ed Belfour made 48 saves and Defenseman Richard Matvichuk logged a career-high 41:19 of ice time.

JUNE 10TH

1999: Dallas ties up their series with the Buffalo Sabres at one. After losing the first game of the series in overtime, the Stars tied the series at one after recording a series-high four goals in Game 2. Jamie Langenbrunner (1-0=1) and Brett Hull (1-0=1) scored their 10th and seventh goals of the postseason, respectively, while Craig Ludwig (1-0=1) and Derian Hatcher (1-0=1) both lit the lamp for the first time in the 1999 playoffs.

JUNE 12TH

1999: The Stars pick up their first road Stanley Cup Final win in Dallas Stars history. The scoring came in pairs as a trio of Stars picked up two points in the game. Joe Nieuwendyk scored both goals (2-0=2) while Jamie Langenbrunner (0-2=2) and Dave Reid (0-2=2) recorded two assists each to lead the Stars to a 2-1 victory lead the series 2 games to 1. The Stars also went a perfect eight-for-eight on the penalty kill.

JUNE 15TH

1999: Buffalo defeats Dallas in Game 4. Buffalo goals by forwards Geoff Sanderson and Dixon Ward lead the Sabres to a 2-1 victory over the Stars to even up the Stanley Cup Final at two games apiece. Jere Lehtinen scored the lone goal (1-0=1) for the Stars, with assists from Mike Modano (0-1=1) and Derian Hatcher (0-1=1).

JUNE 17TH

1999: Dallas shuts out the Buffalo Sabres at home. After a scoreless first period, Darryl Sydor (1-0=1) opened up the scoring in the second period after he found the back of the net on the power play. Pat Verbeek (1-0=1) added a late third period tally while Mike Modano added an assist on both goals (0-2=2). Ed Belfour recorded his first shutout in a Stanley Cup Final game and his 60th career postseason victory, stopping all 23 shots he faced in the process.

JUNE 19TH

1999: The Stars win their first Stanley Cup in franchise history. Brett Hull (1-0=1) scored in triple overtime of Game 6 as the Stars defeated the Buffalo Sabres by a score of 2-1 to capture their first Stanley Cup. Joe Nieuwendyk was awarded the Conn Smythe trophy. Jere Lehtinen (1-1=2) and Mike Modano (0-2=2) both registered multi-point games. The Stars' eight playoff overtime games in the 1999 playoffs is tied for the third most in any single postseason in League history.

AUGUST 13TH

2020: Defensemen Miro Heiskanen (2-0=2) and Jamie Oleksiak (1-0=1) scored three goals as the Stars beat the Flames, 5-4, to tie the Western Conference First Round series, 1-1. The three goals by blueliners marks just the second time in franchise history that defensemen have contributed at least three goals in a playoff game. At 21 years and 26 days old, Heiskanen becomes the youngest defenseman in franchise history and the fourth-youngest defenseman in NHL history to score multiple goals in a playoff game. Oleksiak, who scored the go-ahead, game-winning goal with just 39.2 seconds remaining in regulation, becomes the first player in Dallas Stars history and the third player in franchise history to score a go-ahead goal in the final minute of regulation in the playoffs.

AUGUST 16TH

2020: Joe Pavelski scores three goals (3-0=3) for his first career hat trick in the postseason to help the Stars beat Calgary, 5-4, and tie the First Round series at 2-2. The hat trick is the first by a player in Dallas Stars history and the fifth in franchise history. Pavelski netted the game-tying goal to complete the hat trick with just 11.9 seconds remaining in regulation, marking the latest tying goal in franchise postseason history. At 36 years and 26 days old, he becomes the 10th player in NHL history to score a hat trick at 36 or older and the first since Brett Hull in 2002.

AUGUST 20TH

2020: The Stars overcome a 3-0 deficit and score seven unanswered goals to beat the Flames, 7-3, and advance to the Second Round. It is the first time in NHL postseason history that any team has overcome a three-goal deficit to win by four goals. The team's seven goals are the most scored in a playoff game Dallas Stars history, while the seven consecutive tallies set a new franchise record. The Stars' five goals in the second period also set a new Dallas Stars record. Rookie Denis Gurianov recorded four goals and five points (4-1=5) in the game to become the first player in franchise history to score four goals in a playoff game and to tie the NHL record for most goals by a rookie in a playoff game.

SEPTEMBER 4TH

2020: Joel Kiviranta scores three goals (3-0=3), including the overtime winner, to help the Stars beat the Avalanche, 5-4, in Game 7 to advance to the Western Conference Final for the first time since 2008. Kiviranta becomes the first rookie in NHL history to record a hat trick in a Game 7, while he is one of just two players in NHL history to score a hat trick, including an overtime winner, in a Game 7, joining fellow Finn Esa Tikkanen. The forward's hat trick is the second by a Stars rookie in the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs as Dallas becomes the first team in NHL history to feature multiple rookies with a hat trick in a playoff year.

SEPTEMBER 14TH

2020: Dallas scores two third-period goals against the Vegas Golden Knights to erase a 2-0 deficit before Denis Gurianov scores the series-clinching goal at 3:36 of overtime to advance to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since 2000 and the fifth time in franchise history. Gurianov becomes the fifth rookie in NHL history and the first since 2012 to score a series-clinching goal in overtime which sent his team to the Stanley Cup Final. The forward records two points (1-1=2) in the game to bring his total in series-clinching wins in 2020 to eight points (5-3=8) – the most in NHL history by a rookie within a playoff year.

Joe Calvillo – Corporate Communications Manager, C: (210) 422-6022

Joe Calvillo will be seated in the press box during games. Please don't hesitate to contact him should you need any assistance.

STARS FACILITIES

American Airlines Center
2500 Victory Avenue, Dallas, Texas, 75219
Home Arena - All home games and morning skates will take place here (unless otherwise stated)

Comerica Center
2601 Avenue of the Stars, Frisco, Texas, 75034
Practice Facility and Executive Offices - All home practices will take place here

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media members, including those holding Stars Full Season Credentials, are required to RSVP to Joe Calvillo (jcalvillo@dallasstars.com) by 5:00 p.m. the day prior to the game to ensure access to Dallas Stars home games and morning skates. ONLY MEDIA MEMBERS WHO HAVE RECEIVED EMAIL CONFIRMATION OF THEIR ADMITTANCE WILL BE ALLOWED ENTRY INTO AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER.

Credentials may be picked up from Joe Calvillo at the Media Entrance (located on the southwest side of the arena on Valor Place) either at morning skate or up to three hours prior to game time. Media members that fail to follow these procedures and arrive at the Media Entrance without confirmation will be denied access to American Airlines Center.

PRACTICES

Most off-day practices will be held at Comerica Center, located at 2601 Avenue of the Stars, Frisco, TX 75034. Due to COVID-19 protocols, practices will be closed to the media unless otherwise stated by the Communications Department.

Select Stars players and head coach Rick Bowness will be available via Zoom each day following the conclusion of practice. Members of the media should contact a member of the Stars Communications Department to coordinate feature stories or non-game related interview material.

GAME DAY MORNING SKATES

All morning skates will be held at American Airlines Center in Dallas unless stated otherwise.

Media members who have received confirmation of their admittance to morning skate via email from Joe Calvillo may gain admittance to American Airlines Center through the Media Entrance, which is located at the Southwest corner of the building on Valor Place. Due to COVID-19 protocols, media attending morning skate will be required to sit in their assigned seat in the Press Box.

The Stars will begin skate at 10:15 a.m. but full participation is not guaranteed as the practice can be optional at the head coach's discretion. Visiting teams typically skate at 11:30 a.m.

GAME DAY MEDIA AVAILABILITY PROCEDURES

All morning skate availability and postgame press conferences during the 2020-21 season will be held via Zoom.

Following the conclusion of morning skate, select Stars players and head coach Rick Bowness will be made available to the media. All player requests for morning skate availability must be submitted via email to Ben Fromstein (bfromstein@dallasstars.com) no later than 10:00 a.m. on game days.

The postgame press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game with select Stars players, followed by head coach Rick Bowness. Specific player requests for the postgame press conference should be directed to the Stars Communications Department no later than the midway point of the third period.

As a courtesy to those around you, we encourage everyone to bring headphones for Zoom media sessions.

PRESS BOX

Due to COVID-19 protocols, credentialed members of the media will only be allowed to access the Plaza Level and Press Box in American Airlines Center. The Press Box is the only location during the 2020-21 season that attending media members can work. Except for credentialed photographers and certain members of the broadcast crew, credentialed media members will have NO ACCESS to any other locations inside American Airlines Center, including, but not limited to, the Media Dining and Workroom, the Locker Rooms or the Press Conference Room.

Only media members who have received confirmation of their admittance via email from Joe Calvillo will be allowed entry into American Airlines Center and assigned a seat in the Press Box. Media are required to sit in the seat that is assigned by the Stars Communications department. To ensure social distancing measures are met, at least eight (8) feet of space will be left between each media seat. Moving or rearranging seating areas is not permitted under any circumstance and doing so will be considered a violation to these policies.

MEDIA PARKING

If you have been issued a full-season credential, you have also received a hanging parking tag with a barcode associated with your name and affiliate. The Parking Tag grants access to the Lexus Garage until two hours prior to the start of the game. Media arriving less than two hours prior to game time will be granted access to the Lot-E Parking Lot or Silver Garage.

Please contact Joe Calvillo (jcalvillo@dallasstars.com) by 5:00 p.m. the day prior to the game if you wish to be added to the single game parking list. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS as single game spots are limited. You should not expect parking privileges unless you receive confirmation from Joe Calvillo.

WIRELESS INTERNET AND STATISTICS

The log-in information for wireless internet is posted in multiple locations in the press box and underneath your name on the press box card. Please consult any member of the communications staff if you need additional assistance.

The team will not be providing physical printed copies of any documents (media guide, game notes, NHL stats, end of period or game statistics) this season. All game notes and statistics will be available digitally prior to, during and after the conclusion of each game. Please visit media.nhl.com for more information.

PHOTOGRAPHERS AND CAMERA POSITIONS

Due to COVID-19 protocols, the team has fewer photo positions for the 2020-21 season and can no longer offer access to the photography workroom. Credentialed photographers must consult with team photographer Glenn James prior to the start of the game for photo positions.

JOSH BOGORAD

PLAY BY PLAY ANNOUNCER

Josh Bogorad enters in his seventh season with the Stars broadcast team on FOX Sports Southwest, and his second as the team's play-by-play announcer. For the previous four seasons he has served as the brodcast host of Stars Live, the pre-game, intermission and post-game show during Stars broadcasts on FOX Sports Southwest. Bogorad joined the Stars during the 2013-14 season as the pre-game, intermission and post-game radio host on Sportsradio 1310 and 96.7 FM The Ticket for each Stars contest.

Prior to joining the Stars, Bogorad served as the play-by-play announcer for the Alaska Aces in the ECHL and the Corpus Christi IceRays in the CHL. In 2011, Bogorad was voted the ECHL Broadcaster of the Year, his first season in the league. Prior to that, he was voted the CHL's Best Broadcaster in 2008, 2009, and 2010. He was also selected to call the CHL All-Star Game in 2005, 2007, and 2010, and he won the CHL's Communications Executive of the Year Award in 2007.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Bogorad began his broadcasting career with the Los Angeles Kings as the team's radio correspondent on 97.1 FM KLSX. He later attended the University of Arizona, where he served as a broadcaster for the school's hockey team in 2001. Bogorad and his wife, Andrea, reside in Dallas with their two sons, Mason and Aaron.

DARYL "RAZOR" REAUGH

COLOR ANALYST

Daryl Reaugh is in his 25th year on Stars television and radio broadcasts, and his 23rd as the team's color analyst. For two seasons from 2016-18, Reaugh had served as the team's play-by-play announcer in the wake of Dave Strader's cancer diagnosis. Named by the Sports Business Journal as one of their 2017 Regional Sports Networks Power Players, he is moves back in his previous role as color analyst, for which he has won 11 Lone Star Emmy awards.

Reaugh came to Dallas from the Hartford Whalers, where he served as the color analyst on SportsChannel New England's telecasts during the 1995-96 campaign. He has also demonstrated his expertise on the national stage, having worked with NBC Sports Network, ABC, ESPN, FOX, and CBC's Hockey Night in Canada. Additionally, Reaugh expanded his talents beyond the broadcast booth as he provided the color analyst dialogue and voice for EA Sports' NHL '98 and NHL '99 video games, and is active on Twitter: @Razor5Hole.

As a player, Reaugh's career included stints in the NHL with both the Edmonton Oilers and the Hartford Whalers. Prior to turning pro, he was an all-star netminder for the Kamloops Blazers of the Western Hockey League and was named to their 25th Anniversary Team.

Daryl, his wife, Kristin, who was instrumental in starting the Dallas Stars Foundation, and their two daughters, Falyn and Kendyl, reside in Dallas.

BRIEN REA

BROADCAST HOST

Brien Rea enters his third season with the Stars broadcast team in as the host of Stars Live, the pre-game, intermission and post-game show during Stars broadcasts on FOX Sports Southwest.

Rea comes to Dallas after spending the last four seasons as the play-by-play announcer for the Texas Stars, Dallas' top development affiliate in the American Hockey League. In addition to his broadcasting duties, he also served as Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations for Texas and oversaw the team's public relations efforts.

Prior to his stint with Texas, Rea spent six years (2007-2013) as a play-by-play broadcaster for four different teams in the Central Hockey League (CHL), including the Texas-based Austin Ice Bats and Odessa Jackalopes. Rea has called more than 700 professional regular-season and postseason hockey games in his career. In 2013, he was voted the CHL's Best Broadcaster with the Denver Cutthroats, while also earning New Media Franchise of the Year honors overseeing the team's communications efforts. He was also selected to call the CHL All-Star Game in 2011 and 2012.

The St. Louis, Mo. native began his broadcasting career while attending Lake Forest College, where he served as the broadcaster for the men's hockey and football teams from 2003 - 2005, while also working for WGN Television in Chicago.

BRENT SEVERYN

TELEVISION ANALYST

Brent Severyn begins his 17th season as an analyst for the Dallas Stars broadcast on FOX Sports Southwest.

A native of Vegreville, Alta., Severyn worked his way up from a town of 5,000 people to play at the highest levels of hockey over an 18 year period. A seven-year NHL veteran with 13 years of professional hockey experience, he has played at many levels since leaving his small town. They include the Western Hockey League, Canadian University, American Hockey League and the DEL in Germany.

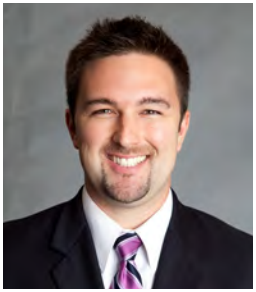
Brent's most successful team experience was winning a bronze medal in the 1983 Universiade Games in Bratislava, Czechoslovakia and winning the national championship for the Munich Barons in the DEL (German Premiere League). Severyn was drafted by the Winnipeg Jets in the fifth round (99th overall) of the 1984 NHL Entry Draft as a defenseman. Brent was an Allstar at the Canadian University level and a first team All Star in the American Hockey League. In 1999, he was also a member of the Stanley Cup-winning Dallas Stars.

Brent now works in Dallas as an NHL TV Analyst for FoxSports Southwest while continuing to develope young hockey players in the metroplex. Severyn is actively involved in the community and has been the recipient of two NHL community service awards for both the Anaheim Ducks and the Dallas Stars. He is also President of Severyn Sports Inc, a multi-faceted company, that includes broadcasting, sports conditioning programs and events based out of Plano, Texas.

BRUCE LEVINE
RADIO HOST

Bruce LeVine returns for his 11th season as a member of the Dallas Stars radio broadcast team. Since 2010, LeVine has been heard on Sportsradio 1310 AM and 96.7 FM The Ticket as an analyst and co-host. Prior to joining the Stars, LeVine broadcast at all levels of hockey, including stints with the New York Islanders, Louisiana IceGators (ECHL), Arkansas RiverBlades (ECHL), Phoenix Cobras (RHI), Dallas Freeze (CHL) and as the KHL's United States Television play-by-play voice. LeVine is also a contributor to ESPN.com's NHL coverage.

LeVine began his broadcasting career at WFAA Channel 8 (ABC) in Dallas in 1983. Serving in several capacities, he earned six Katie Awards from the Dallas Press Club, a UPI, an AP award for outstanding reporting, and a Heartland Emmy Award. A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., LeVine resides in Plano with his wife, Sherry, and their four children, Daniel, Marly, Franklin and Shane.



OWEN NEWKIRK
RADIO HOST

Owen Newkirk enters his seventh season with the Dallas Stars as a pre-game, intermission and post-game host on Sportsradio 1310 and 96.7 FM The Ticket. He is also the host of Stars Sunday on The Ticket.

A native of Blue Hill, Maine, Newkirk spent seven seasons in the American Hockey League, most recently serving as the director of broadcasting and media relations for Dallas' AHL affiliate, the Texas Stars (2012-14), winning the Calder Cup with the team in 2014.

He has also served as color commentator for the Binghamton Senators (2010-12), as well as play-by-play and director of public relations for both the Adirondack Phantoms (2009-10) and the Albany River Rats (2007-09).

Now entering his 14th season of broadcasting professional hockey, Newkirk, 35, was part of Binghamton's run to the 2011 Calder Cup Final and was a member of the AHL Live broadcast team that called the 2009 AHL All-Star Classic in Worcester, Mass.

Prior to his time in the AHL, he was director of broadcasting for the ECHL's Elmira Jackals for four seasons (2003-07). In addition to his hockey experience, Newkirk has also broadcast for the Albany Firebirds (Arena Football2 – 2007-09) and Berkshire Black Bears (independent baseball – 2003). Newkirk is a graduate of Haverford College, where he earned his bachelor's degree in astronomy.

MIKE HEIKA

SENIOR STAFF WRITER, DALLASSTARS.COM

Mike Heika is in his third season with the Dallas Stars, serving as the team's senior staff writer.

Heika comes to the Stars after spending the past 19 years covering the team with the Dallas Morning News. Before that, he covered the Stars for six years at the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. During that span, he has seen the team move from Minnesota to Dallas, win the 1999 Stanley Cup, and move into American Airlines Center. He has covered three owners, five general managers, and six head coaches.

In addition to reporting on hockey, Heika has also covered the Olympics, NFL, NBA, MLB, PGA, MLS, and college football for the Star-Telegram and Morning News. Among the events he has written on are Kenny Rogers' perfect game and the Mavericks' NBA championship.

Heika grew up in Traverse City, Mich. and graduated from Central Michigan University. He and his wife, Melinda, live in Colleyville and have two children, Alex and Meredith.

TOM HOLY

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS AND BROADCASTING

Tom Holy is in his eighth season with the Dallas Stars and his 15th overall in the NHL. He currently serves as the vice president of communications for the club.

Holy, 36, previously spent eight seasons as a member of the San Jose Sharks media relations department from 2005-13. While with the Sharks, the team won the Dick Dillman Award, presented to the League's best media relations staff in each conference as voted on by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association, four times (2007-10) and was a finalist in the other four seasons the award was presented over that span. Prior to joining San Jose, he spent three seasons as Public Relations Manager of the Cleveland Barons, the Sharks top development affiliate in the American Hockey League.

Holy, a Cleveland, Ohio native, received his bachelor's degree in education and human development (specialization in sport management) from Bowling Green State University in 2002.

BEN FROMSTEIN

MEDIA RELATIONS MANAGER

Ben Fromstein is in his ninth season with the Dallas Stars, and his sixth as media relations manager. Before joining the Stars organization, Fromstein served one year as the media relations intern with the Chicago Blackhawks during the 2011-12 season. During the 2014-15 and 2017-18 seasons, Fromstein and the Dallas Stars Communications Department recieved the Dick Dillman Award, given annually to the team judged by the members of the Professional Hockey Writers Association (PHWA) to be the best in media relations.

The Winnetka, Ill., native graduated from the University of Wisconsin, Madison in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in communications with a specialization in radio, television and film. During his time at Wisconsin, Fromstein spent three years working in the Athletic Communications office where he served as the assistant sports information director for several sports, including the 2011 National Champion women's hockey team.

JOE CALVILLO

CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER

Joe Calvillo is in his 11th season with the Dallas Stars and works alongside the media relations department to help promote players, coaches, executives and organizational initiatives on the local and national level.

In his role, Calvillo is responsible for managing the communications efforts of the club's off-ice activities including corporate partnerships, ticket sales, marketing, StarCenters and the Dallas Stars Foundation. He also serves as the editor of the game program and team yearbook, along with managing the team photography archives. During the 2014-15 and 2017-18 seasons, Calvillo and the Dallas Stars Communications Department recieved the Dick Dillman Award, given annually to the team judged by the members of the Professional Hockey Writers Association (PHWA) to be the best in media relations.

Calvillo came to the Stars organization after spending five seasons (2006-2010) working in various communications roles within Spurs Sports and Entertainment. He graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a bachelor's degree in public relations.

Calvillo and his wife, Catherine, reside in Dallas with their Corgi, Willow.
